It hap-pened that the po-et chanced to pay A vis-it to the fair and sun-ny South, Where the sweet mag-no-lias grow, and trop-ic breez-es blow, And the 'ga tors lark a-bout the riv-er's mouth, 'Twas there a cul-lud mammy that he met Who had like-wise heard the po-et's fa-mous song, And she strug-gled all the day To learn it in a way, But the way in which she learned it was all wrong.
