

LIBRARY of CONGRESS
Two Copies Received
AUG 9 1907
Mus. Div.
11.9.148
COPY 2

SIX POEMS BY FIONA MACLEOD
SET TO MUSIC FOR A MEDIUM VOICE WITH PIANO ACCOMPANIMENT BY HELEN HOPEKIRK

FROM THE HILLS OF DREAM	.50
OH BONNIE BRIDEEN	.50
THE LONELY HUNTER	.60
WHEN THE DEW IS FALLING	.50
ST. BRIDE'S LULLABY	.50
THE BIRD OF CHRIST	.60

COMPLETE IN ONE VOLUME

$1.25 NET

NEW YORK : G. SCHIRMER

Library of Congress
CLASS. NO. 1621 H
REG. NO. 206976

ST. BRIDE'S LULLABY

Oh, Baby Christ, so dear to me,
Sang Bridget Bride:
How sweet thou art,
My baby dear,
Heart of my heart!

Heavy her body was with thee,
Mary, beloved of One in Three,
Sang Bridget Bride—
Mary, who bore thee, little lad:
But light her heart was, light and glad
With God's love clad.

Sit on my knee,
Sang Bridget Bride:
Sit here
O Baby dear,
Close to my heart, my heart:
For I thy foster-mother am,
My helpless lamb!
O have no fear,
Sang good St. Bride.

My Lord, my Prince, I sing:
My Baby dear, my King!
Sang Bridget Bride.

FIONA MACLEOD

Fiona Macleod

St. Bride's Lullaby

Helen Hopekirk

Simply mf (♩ = ♩)

Voice

Oh, Ba - by Christ, so dear, to me,

Piano p mf

(d = ♩)

p mf rit.

Sang Brid - get Bride: How sweet thou art, My ba - by dear, Heart of my heart! mf rit.

Heav - y her bod - y was with thee,

p a tempo mf

Ma - ry, be - lov - ed of One in Three, Sang Brid - get Bride.

19672 C

Saint Bridgid or Bride, loved and revered by the Gael as the virgin foster mother of Christ. Called also Bridgid nam Bratta, St. Bride of the Mantle. Copyright, 1907, by G. Schirmer

mf

Ma - ry, who bore thee, lit - tle lad: But light her heart was, light and glad With rit.

God's love clad.

pp a tempo

mp

Sit on my knee, — Sang Brid - get Bride: Sit here, O ba - by dear,

rit. a tempo

Close to my heart, my heart: — For I thy fos - ter - moth - er — am, — My

rit. a tempo

help - less lamb! O have no fear.

My Lord, my Prince, I sing,

My Ba - by dear, my

King! Sang Brid - get Bride.

19572

(Boston, 1906)

AUG 9 1907

