who fought in the World's War for the Allied cause*

Words and Music by
J. E. ARTERBURN.

With much expression.

The first system of the piano accompaniment consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords in the treble clef, while the left hand plays a simple bass line in the bass clef. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4.

O Al - lies! O Al - lies! Be faith - ful and true,
O Bel - gium! O Bel - gium! You fought for your line;
O Eng - land! O Eng - land! The land of the brave.

The second system features a vocal line in the treble clef with lyrics and a piano accompaniment in two staves. The piano accompaniment continues with chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

Un - cle Sam is with you, The Stars and Stripes too,
You fought for your hon - or, You fought for man - kind.
You are in the world's war, The na - tions to save;

The third system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano accompaniment features a more active bass line in the left hand.

We'll now go to Ber - lin, We'll take the whole town;
You fought for your coun - try, You held the great throng,
With Rus - sia knock - ed out, Yet torn in de - spair,

The final system of the page shows the vocal line and piano accompaniment concluding the piece. The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord in the right hand and a sustained note in the left hand.

ALLIED CAUSE

I

O Allies! O Allies! Be faithful and true;
Uncle Sam is with you, The Stars and Stripes too.
We 'll now go to Berlin, We 'll take the whole town;
Our flag is unfurled, 'Twas never hauled down.

CHORUS.

We 'll always be true, We 'll always be true
To the boys who marched With the drab and the blue;
We 'll always be true, We 'll always be true
To the nations that fought With the red, white and blue.

O Belgium! O Belgium! You fought for your line;
You fought for your honor, You fought for mankind.
You fought for your country, You held the great throng,
Tho' they had made ready, Some forty years long.

O England! O England! The land of the brave!
You are in the world's war, The nations to save;
With Russia knocked out, Yet torn in despair,
We will fight to the end, The victory to share.

O Italy! O Italy! The land of the sun!
You have fought great armies, You stood the wild run;
With Rumania, Servia, Then China combine,
You shall ever march In, the great Allies' line.

O Japan! O Japan! From the Ancient Land
Your flag shines in the sun, It waves in the breeze;
With many great Allies, Both nations and guns,
We 'll bring with the Kaiser, His friends, to their knees.

O dear France! O dear France! You fought and you bled;
Your land will ever be The home of our dead.
When the war is over, With their names in black;
Their place will be vacant, They never came back.
