MAY 19 1917 ©

THE FLAG OF MY HEART AND HOME

WORDS & MUSIC BY

BEN. AARONSON

PUBLISHED BY PATRIOTIC PUB. CO. OF AMERICA
266 WILLIAM ST. NEW YORK

The Flag Of My Heart And Home.

Words and Music by BEN AARONSON.

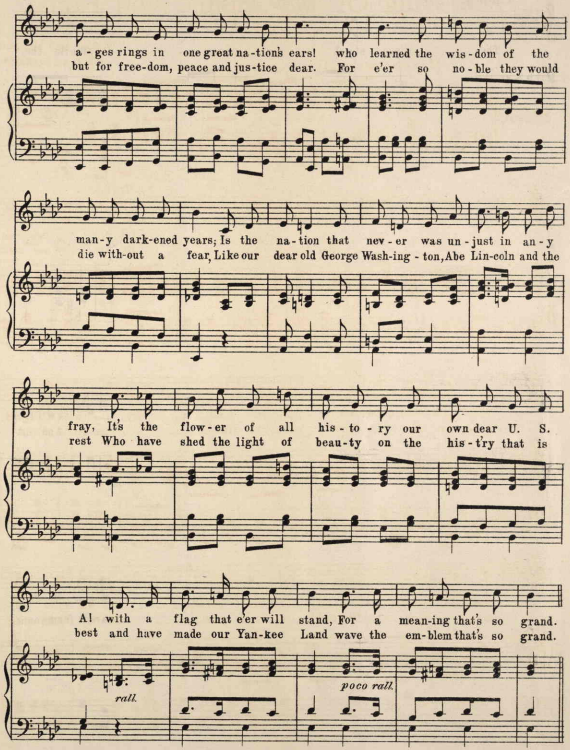
Copyright MCMXVII by Ben. Aaronson.



a - ges rings in one great na - tion's ears! who learned the wis - dom of the but for free - dom, peace and jus - tice dear. For e'er so no - ble they would man - y dark - ened years; Is the na - tion that nev - er was un - just in an - y die with - out a fear, Like our dear old George Wash - ing - ton, Abe Lin - coln and the fray, It's the flow - er of all his - to - ry our own dear U. S.
rest Who have shed the light of beau - ty on the his - t'ry that is A! with a flag that e'er will stand, For a mean - ing that's so grand.
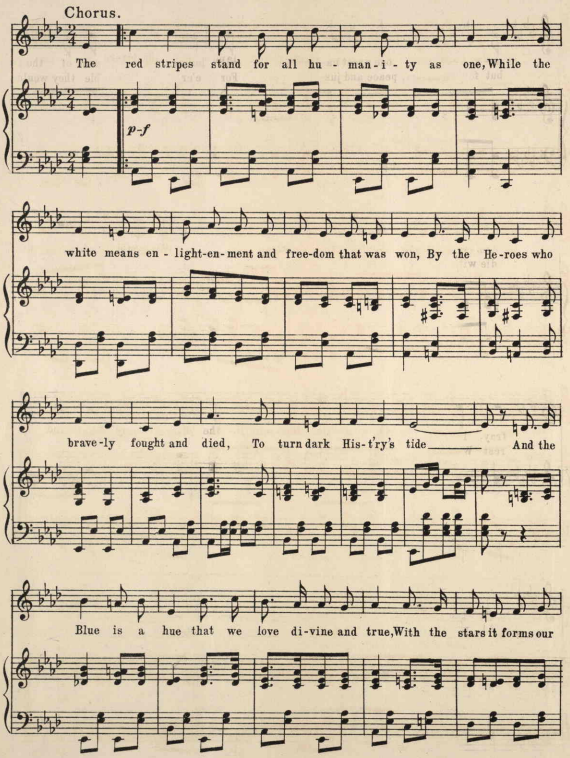
best and have made our Yan - kee Land wave the em - blem that's so grand.
rall.
poco rall.



Chorus.
The red stripes stand for all hu - man-i - ty as one, While the p-f white means en - light-en-ment and free-dom that was won, By the He-roes who brave-ly fought and died, To turn dark His-try's tide And the Blue is a hue that we love di-vine and true, With the stars it forms our no - ble bond and glo - ries through All land and sea where it may be, In great Hon-or ev-'ry-where it's flown We should tip our hats with rev-'rence To the em-blem of the Heav-ens, It's the Flag of my Heart and 1

2
Last.
Home.
Home.
Home. fz

4666.1