

JUN 30 1917

© & E 406494

R

Under The Flag Of The U. S. A.

by James Allan Anderson.

M1646

A

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 - 12 lines.

Under The Flag Of The U.S.A.

allegro Mod.

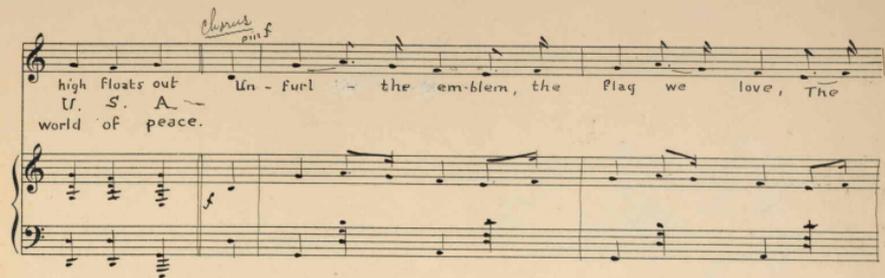

The nation is calling her men to arms; Soldiers to service at Our soldiers are marching to join the fight, An-swer to du-ty and
The flag we - love is of Free-doms land: "Hon-or and right" is our war's a-larms, and sailors bold to the na-vy proud Far out where her guns roar call of right, - Stepping to drum beat and bu-gle blow, They're off and a-way to con-stant stand. - Loy-al we to our chief and true. As we stand by the red and long and loud. Load and fire, Oh men in blue Aim your shells like meet the foe. Charge the trench - they're get-ting through; On with the ban-ner white and blue. Hasten the day When wars are done Has-ten the day when marks-men true Clear decks for ac-tion; Foe to rout, See how Old Glo-ry on red, white and blue For-ward to vic-t'ry, force a way, Under the flag of the free dom's won Bro-ther-hood come and love in-crease: Bring in Old Glory a

Chorus
high floats out Un-furl the em-blem, the flag we love, The U. S. A. world of peace.

Stars and the Stripes to the breeze a-bove. Let it flut-ter proud-ly sway Cheers for the flag of the U. S. A.

1 + 2 last time

1. The nation is calling her men to arms,
Soldiers to service, at war's alarms;
And sailors bold to the navy proud
Far out where her guns roar long and loud.
Load and fire, Oh men in blue;
Aim your shells like marksmen true.
Clear decks for action; foe to rout.
See how Old Glory on high floats out.

CHORUS:

Unfurl the emblem, the flag we love,
The Stars and the Stripes, to the breeze above.
Let it flutter, proudly sway;
Cheers for the flag of the U.S.A.

2. Our soldiers are marching to join the fight,
Answer to duty and call of right.
Stepping to drum-beat and bugle-blow,
They are off and away to meet the foe.
Charge the trench!- they're getting through;
On with the banner- red, white and blue!
Forward to vict'ry, force a way,
Under the flag of the U.S.A.!

CHORUS (as before)

3. The flag we love is of Freedom's Land.
"Honor and Right" is our constant stand.
Loyal we to our chief, and true
As we stand by the red and white and blue.
Hasten the day when wars are done,
Hasten the day when Freedom's won.
Brotherhood come and love increase;
Bring in, Old Glory, a world of peace.

CHORUS (as before)