The World's War Song

Composed by DAVID ATCHISON
Civil War Veteran
19th Kansas Militia.

A - way down in France the war first be-gun,

Down near Par-is with General Persh-ing, He stood by the flag with a heart brave and true, And fought with the Dough-boys for the Red, White and Blue. The Kais-er said them Yank-ees eat ice cream and cake But when it comes to fighting they are nothing but a fake Pershing gave the or-der to break the Hindenburg line, The Yankees made the charge and broke it in good time. Hin-den-burg said to the Kais-er I want to re-sign, If them

The musical score is written in 2/4 time and consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The lyrics are placed below the vocal line.

Yank-ees keep on fighting they will soon reach the Rhine, They will march on to Ber- lin, lay our coun-try in waste, What we are going to do I must do it in haste, The Kais-er said to Hin-den-burg we must stop this fight, But the Yank-ees keep on fight-ing they are rush-ing in their might, I will ask an arm-is - tie, and I will go a - way, I'll go ov - er to Hol-land and there I will stay.

Persh-ing said to Gen'ral Foch the Yank-ees want to fight, Foch said they've had no train-ing and I dont think that is right, I will place them on the fir - ing line and there they will stay, The Yanks will charge the Ger-mans and that will gain the day. The Kais-er's get-ting wor-ried he dont know what to do, An unconditional sur-ren-der is the thing that will suit you, Poch accept-ed the sur-ren-der and told Pershing to go home I'll at-tend to the Kais-er I can do it a-lone. Hur-rah for the boys that are march-ing a-long, Hurrah for the boys that are march-ing a-long, Pershing stood by the flag, With a heart brave and true, and fought with the Yank-ees for the Red, White and Blue.
