©CLE442102
R

Words and music by

W. B. Anderson

America The World Loves You

M1646
.A

America the world loves you

Words and Music By
W. B. Anderson

Tempo di Marcia

Slow

There's a new light bright-ly shin-ing. The light of lib-er-ty.
Such the light of free-dom burn-ing. In ev-ery home to-night

The stars that on the the clouds will have a

Oh
sil-ver shin-ing All with that they could be,
Upon the flag that guards the free.

ev-er let the ban-ner fly Up-

may it al-ways wave on the moun-tain height.

To
The

free the world from tyr-an-ny light of hope and tri-umph bright

To In

free the true and brave
a glor-ious sight

Chorus

A-mer-i-ca the world loves you
Land of the free and brave man Staunch and true knew what to do. And faced a he-ro's grave. As Washington fought and won the day. So Lin-coln he did too And Wil-son showed her sons were brave. A — mer-i-ca proved it true