

DO YOUR

BIT

Words and Music

BY

ELLIS K. BALDWIN

Do Your Bit

Words & Music
By ELLIS K. BALDWIN.

Moderato.

f

Voice

Don't stand around and You've done your "bit"

Vamp

say "What can I do?" For there are lots of tasks cut out for you. — They if you've bought a bond To help the al - lies out a - cross the pond. — And

ritard

may seem mean and might-y small, But it's the lit - tle things that count a - ter all. — if all you can do is knit, — Then knita pair of socks that is your bit. —

ritard

Chorus.

You do your "bit" for your coun-try that calls! ———— Though it may seem small
 You do your "bit" for your coun-try that calls! ———— Though it may seem small

It's just the thing that will help in the end To bring a-bout the Kai - ser's fall; Per - haps you It's just the thing that will help in the end To bring a-bout the Kai - ser's fall; For when our can not go and fight! ———— To help pro-TECT your coun-try's right. But if boys get in the fight! ———— They'll knock the Kai - ser out of sight. But if you do your "bit" and a lit-tle bit more, The quick-er we'll win the war! war!

