©CE409877 AUG 10 1917

WE'RE COMING, PAPA JOFFRE!

Words by LILYAN VARNES

Music by
GAETANO ANTONIO BALICE

Erasure
C.K.
Lilyan Varnes

Tempo di Marcia

Voice

We're coming, Papa Joffre, ten hundred thousand strong!
It will do no good to argue or try to fix the blame;

Coming 'cross the great sea to help the cause along! We don't know if we'll
What we must do is fight, and cheat the kaiser's game. Whatever he did get there or land some other place-- We only know we're going the not do he sure tied up the sea; And that's enough for you and me, the

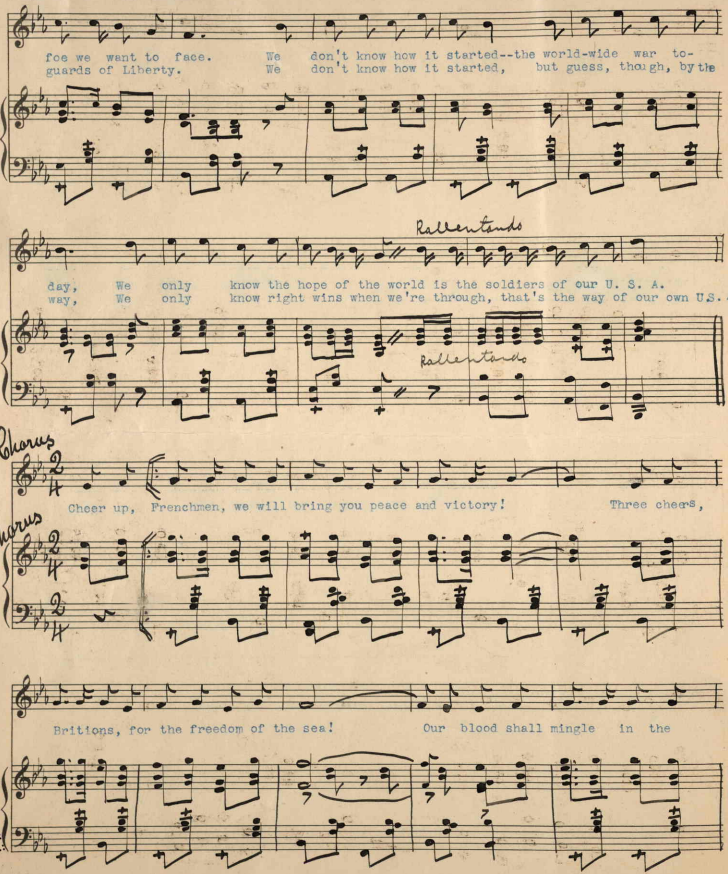
Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.

M1646 .B

Copyright, 1917, by Lilyan Varnes,
San Francisco, Cal.



foe we went to face. We don't know how it started--the world-wide war to-guards of Liberty. We don't know how it started, but guess, though, by the rallentando
day, We only know the hope of the world is the soldiers of our U. S. A. way, We only know right wins when we're through, that's the way of our own U.S. A.
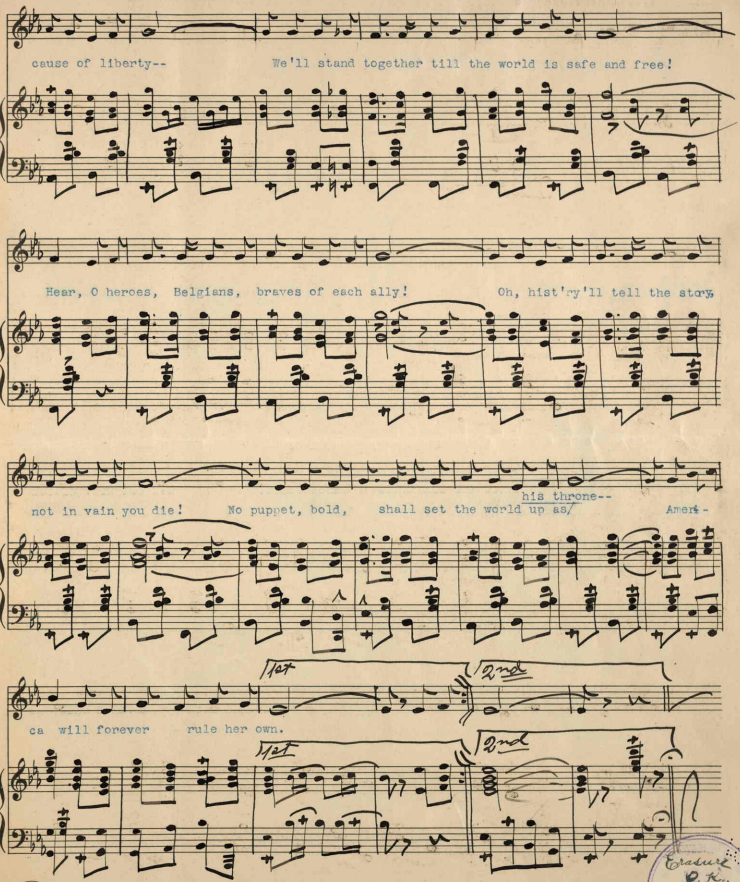
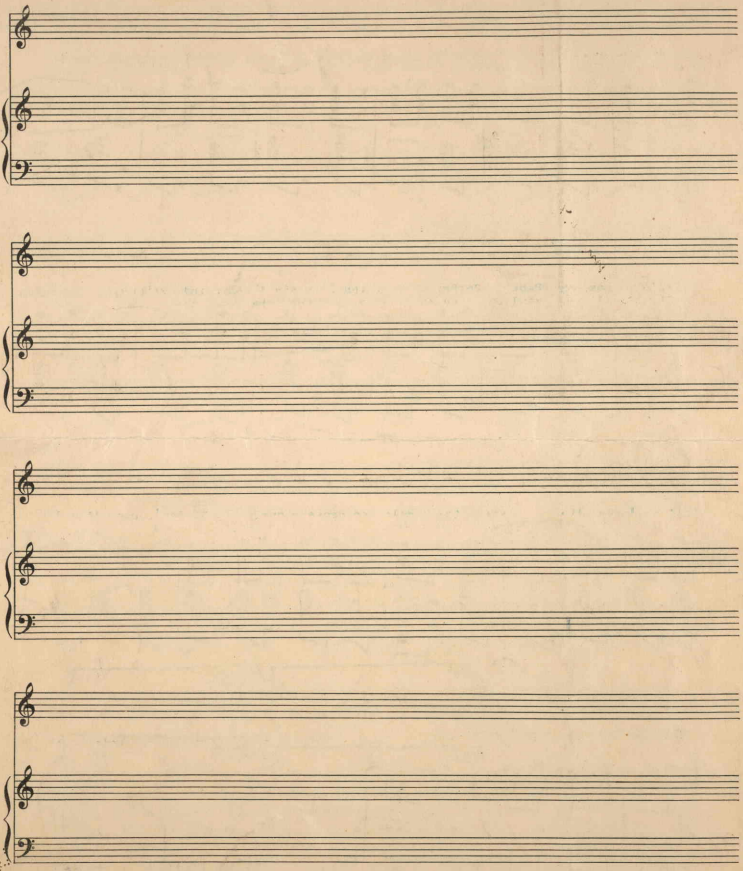
rallentando
Chorus
Cheer up, Frenchmen, we will bring you peace and victory! Three cheers,
Chorus
Britions, for the freedom of the sea! Our blood shall mingle in the



Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-13 lines.

Erasure O. K.



414555