March time

VOICE With dignity and expression

1. Oh, for a League of Na - tions grand, All the world can un - der - stand; That shall
 2. Cheers for our he - roes, wel - come home, Grand and brave as an - y known, They have
 3. Cheer, as the boys go march - ing by, For Old Glo - ry they would die, For the end for - ev - er - more The scourge of cru - el war; Then ev - ry na - tion shall be free, As swept the foe - man's line, won vic - to - ry sub - lime, That ev - ry na - tion shall be free; These prin - ci - ples that our fore - fa - thers have main - tained, That all their chil - dren shall be free, And free, as our sweet Land of Lib - er - ty, We must make the world safe for De - moc - ra - cy.

 brave de - fend - ers of our lib - er - ty, They have made the world safe for De - moc - ra - cy.
 we all may en - joy sweet lib - er - ty, And up - hold the rights we owe Hu - man - i - ty.

Majestic

For a - greed are we, that the world shall be Made safe for De - moc - ra - cy.

“A SONG THAT DESERVES AMERICA’S SUPPORT”

A Word To The Public

By JOHN HENRY TITUS, The Bard of Tarrytown, N. Y.
Author of
The Face on the Bar Room Floor; A Legend of an Ideal Soul in the Alps

“To sing of the League of Nations, or to attempt to voice the aspirations of America in song and worthy to be called the American Marseillaise, has often engaged the professional and more versatile mind. However, the main reason for this attempt is the

Stirring of Enthusiasm to Action “Least We Forget” What They Endured

America loves the stirring march, and to become acquainted with this one is to enjoy with another inspiring American song and feel again The Touch That Makes the Whole World Kin! Brothers wherever we may be, is the keynote. And, like other Patriotic Songs of Joy and Uplift, will endure the test of Party-Spirit and find

A Hearty Welcome in Every True American Home.

In harmony with the song is the Beautiful Title Page, “Allied in Freedom’s Cause,” by the same author (a layman), Here, the Flags of Our Allies United for self-preservation, seek shelter under the protecting wings of Our Emblem; and the Song that Sings Good-will to all Peoples—Breathing --The Spirit of the Times Whispers—Love’s Labor Is Not Lost!—

Yes, some day we’ll surely have The League of Nations!

‘Tis The Dream of Our Own Creation! The Hope of a Better World!

STRIKE UP THE BAND AND LET THE DANCE GO ON!’

Make This Your Party Song

For a Campaign and Chorus Song, This is The One to Push Along!

For encores, and to keep the song up to the minute, popular slogans or catch-lines, may be substituted and make the ‘Hit’ for your favorite Leader.

The following is suggested for the fifth and last lines in Chorus: respectively

GIVE US THE MAN WHO’LL WORK HIS PLAN LIKE HOOVER, ‘T WAS WITH PRIDE WE FOUGHT BESIDE OUR GALLANT BROTHER!

WIN WE MUST. OUR CAUSE IS JUST, STAND BY OLD GLORY!

WE LIKE MISTER HOOVER ALL BECAUSE HE’S THE WORLD’S REAL SANTA CLAUS; HE’S ONE GREAT AMERICAN.

JUST GIVE MITCHEL PALMER HALF A CHANCE, HE WILL MAKE THE GOUGERS DANCE, THIS SONG OF DEMOCRACY.

AND GENERAL PERSHING’S NAME WILL STAND HIGH AS ANY IN OUR LAND THAT FOUGHT FOR HUMANITY, ETC., ETC.

Parodies on this song strictly forbidden.
