Rush to the firing-line; win victory sublime.

And must make the world safe for Democracy, etc.

Let's have some fun, hunting the Hun;
Peace, with victory, must come.

For we mean to let them know [vain,
To no heavenly resting place they'll go,
Should they dare to denigrate this world again.
For agreed are we that the world must be

WIN A GLORIOUS SWIFT VICTORY FOR LASTING PEACE AND JUSTICE, THAT WILL SAFE-GUARD THE SACRED RIGHTS OF EACH AND EVERY NATION AGAINST THE BRUTAL FORCE OF MIGHT AND

THESE ADDITIONAL VERSES MAY BE USED AT OPTION

LET'S RALLY, BOYS!—(OUR OWN DEAR ALLIES' DELIGHT)

In Nineteen Hundred and Fourteen,
Foes in Europe could be seen,
Smashing through the beautiful country-seats and towns;
And in their insane delight
Gave proof that they had sought this wicked fight,
Oh, the lives they could have saved, had they done right.
For agreed are we that the world must be
Made safe for Democracy.

We wanted to escape this fight,
But it must be settled right;
Enduring peace we find is best for all mankind,
Germany condemned will be,
Till freed from the rule of Autocracy!
That has plunged the world into untold agony.
For agreed are we that the world must be
Made safe for Democracy.

The moral victory is won,
When we ask for nothing more
Than an actual guarantee to stop the cause of war;
Germany need not despair,
Why don't she want to come out on the square,
Laying down her arms, to prove she's playing fair?
For agreed are we that the world must be
Made safe for Democracy.

CHORUS

So let's rally, boys, our flag has joined the Allies,
Comrades in arms, no foe we fear,
For never will we fight, but to defend the right
And win our righteous war.
Down the Hun who dares to run our land of Freedom,—
Comrades forever may we be—
With President Wilson we agree that the world must be Made safe for Democracy.
