©CLE432890
OCT -8 1918

Over The Top, Yankee Boy

Dedicated to Major W. C. Allen

Words and music by George G. Pender

March tempo

1. Mark! you the Kais-er and his fiend-ish file, As they pro-fane and de-spoil and be-guile;
2. Fling wide the stand-ard the Huns hate to see, Where it can taunt them and tail vic-to-ry;

cresc.

Look at the em-blems they mock-ing-ly brand, The sub-stitute of a vul-gar and a Yours is the hon-or de-fend-er to be, Of lib-er-ty, pa-tern-is-ty and

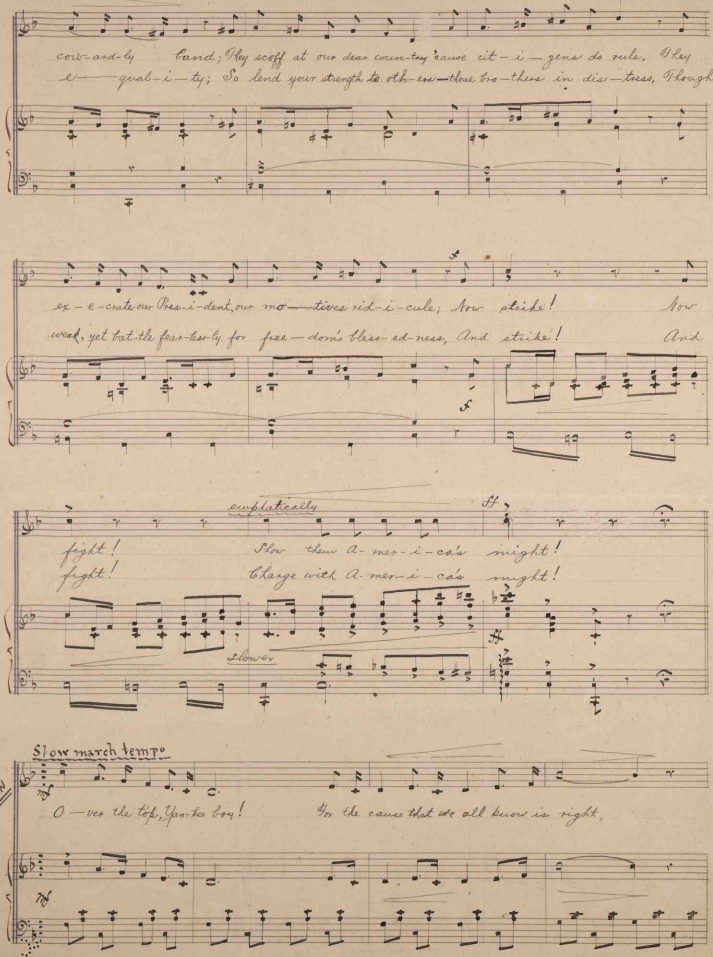
M1646
.B

Copyright 1918



cow-and-ly band; They scoff at our dear country 'cause it—i—gens do rule, They e—qual-i—ty; So lend your strength to oth-ers—those two—thirds in dis—tress, Though ex-e-crate our Pres-i-dent, our mo—tives rid-i-cule; Now strike! Now weak, yet bat-tle fear-less-ly for free—dom's bless-ed-ness, And strike! And emphatically fight! Show them A-mer-i-ca's might!
fight! Charge with A-mer-i-ca's might!
slower
Slow march tempo
Refrain
O—ver the top, Yan-kee boy! For the cause that we all know is right, cresc.

Fol-low the flag, Yankee boy, Heed the call of its sa-cred light, Send your slower blows 'gainst the foes, nev-er stop, No-bly brave death and grave if need be, Well the poco a poco
cre-do do
ff broadly
stars and the stripes are o-ver the top, And these breathe peace and love on all hu-
poco a poco
ff sotto voce
poco
man i-ty. man i-ty.
1
2
1
2