"With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in, to bind up.... wounds,.... to do all which may achieve and cherish a lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."

Abraham Lincoln's second inaugural address.

1 Our Flag of Freedom is from the Lord,
Its colors bright reflect His word;
All of our lives are in His care,
God, of the People, Everywhere.
Without nationality
All the earth, He gives, for Humanity,

2 Will send our message to the world,
" when foes of Right with Flag unfurled,
Assail the People of a Land,
For the down-trodden we will stand
In Faith, Hope and Charity,
We will battle, all, for Humanity."

Chorus for verses 1, 2, 3, 4.
Under our Flag of Freedom,
All America,
All America,
In Faith, Hope and Charity,
All America
Will battle, for Humanity!

3. We'll wave our Banner for the Lord,—
Will march, believing in His Word,
And, fighting for a Common Cause,
We'll shout for Freedom and Just Laws!
In Faith, Hope and Charity,
All America for Humanity!

4. We're going forward in our might,
And battling for the God of Right,
We'll meet the foe on Land and Sea,
Foe of "Christ-Law" our Enemy,
In Faith Hope and Charity,
We will battle, all, for Humanity!

Verse 5. When all rejoice in Freedom's birth,
With Victory won o'er all the earth;
Joy-bells will sound from shore to shore
Echoing onward, evermore,
In Faith Hope and Charity,
All the world will be, for Humanity

Chorus for Verse 5 Under a Flag of Freedom;
All the World will be
All the World will be
In Faith, Hope and Charity
All the World, will be,
Overcome for Humanity!

Under our flag of freedom.

Our Creed:—

"All of our lives are in His care,
God, of the People, Ev'rywhere."

Our message:—

"When foes of Right with flag unfurled,
Assail the People of our Land,
For the down-trodden we will stand."

Our Banner:—

"All America for Humanity"

Our Cause:—

Freedom and Just Laws!

Our Enemy:—

Foe of "Christ-Law".

We will battle,
Until the world is overcome for Humanity!

(1 Cor. 13.)

When the nations as well as the individual understand that Faith, Hope and Charity are the spiritual prototypes of the mental and physical characteristics, obedience, patience and endurance, and, that obedience to the Laws of Right by each and all, will give more faith in God, more faith in self, more faith in humanity, more patience with the frailties of human nature, and better plans for instruction in Wisdom, with Hope for a greater spiritual unfoldment; then, endurance will be a characteristic common to mankind and its spiritual prototype, Charity, will enable all to rejoice in the Truth. (1 Cor. 13:6) Then, there will be peace!

"And though I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing."

(1. Cor. 13:2).

"When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things."

1 Cor. 13:11.

"And now abideth Faith, Hope, Charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity." (For true charity is love for humanity with service).

'Rejoice not in iniquity
but rejoice in the Truth.'
