The Christian Soldier's Memorial Hymn.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Rev. 14: 13.

Rev. J. M. Lyons, D. D., 1918.

William W. Bentley, 1918.

Tenderly and with feeling.

1. Rest, sol-dier, rest, thy war-fare now is end-ed, In bless-ed realms, where
 2. Rest, sol-dier, rest, be-yond the reach of shad-ows, Where try-ing, anx-ious
 3. Rest, sol-dier, rest, no long-er with the dy-ing, A per-feet peace floods
 4. Rest, sol-dier, rest, for thou art now im-mor-tal, And nev-er more shall faith gives place to sight; Gone from the earth, by an-gel guards at-tend-ed;

 cares have pass'd a-way; Sweet peace thou hast, where all is joy and glad-ness;
 now thy rap-tured soul; A foun-tain pure thy ev-'ry want sup-ply-ing, suf-fer grief or pain: Thou art with-in the o-pen, gold-en por-tal,

REFRAIN.

To that bright world where falls no shade of night.
 In that high noon of Heav'n's e-ter-nal day.
 While all those vast, un-count-ed a-ges roll. } Rest, sol-dier, rest, thru Christ an heir of
 For - ev - er with thy Lord to live and reign.

glo-ry, Thy war is o-ver, and thy vic-t'ry won; Let men and an-gels rit.

tell the joy-ful sto-ry, The crown is won, thy Sav-iours says: "Well done!"
