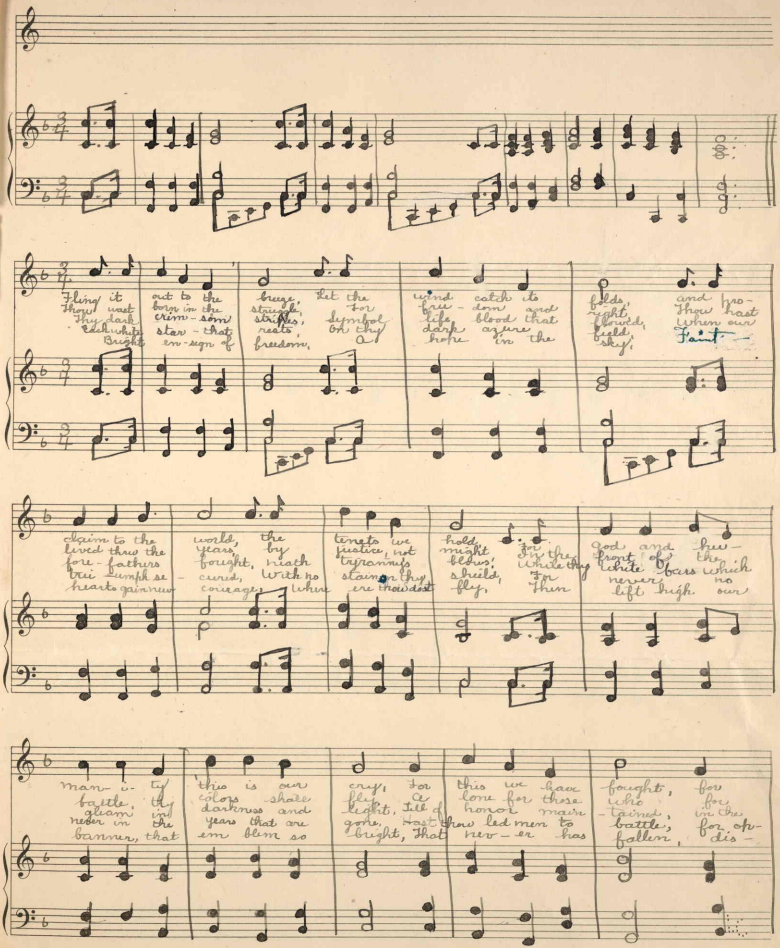
©CLE442342
FEB -5 1919

Ave Olde Glorie
(Hail Old Glory)
The Flag Of The Free

Rosellette Bird.

M1646
.B



Fling it out to the breeze, let the wind catch its folds, and pro-
Thou wast born in the strife, for fair - dom's cause right, Thou hast Thy dark blue field, symbol of life blood that flourish'd, Union our Bright star - that never, O thy dark azure hope in the field, Faint - sign of freedom, field, sky, claim to the world, the tenets we hold, fit the God and hu - lived thro the years, by fustice, not bless, while they front of the fore fathers fought, with tyrannys shield, for Thine foe - bars which true hearts gainnew - courage, when stain thy fly, never lift high our mankind, this is our cry, for this we have fought, for battle, the glorious shield, flag, at lent for those who fell,
gleam in darkness and light, till honor mark - ing, with never in the years that are gone, was thou led men to battle, for banner, that emblem so bright, that nev - er has fallen, dis -

this we will die!
yes - tis would die!
thick of the fight!
- hrussion anger strong!
graced in the fight!
Cho:
So old Glory, old Glory, thy colors shall wave, a lone for the True, a lone for the Brave.