Gal-lant men far and near, their coun-trys call did cheer, We are proud of their loy-al-ty. Heavens fire will surround, his ar-my when they're found, Ev-ry shot will mean Lib-er-ty! To be marshalled a-gain at Freedom's Call, The en-e-my to conquer that is all, Our Put an end to a monarch-y in shame, And leave them in their cruel smoke and flame; Then Yan-kee brains and guns, soon will fin-ish the Huns, They'll make a heart-less em-pire fall. Peace for all the world, with Old Glo-ry unfurled; A new de-moc-ra-cy will reign.' The score concludes with a piano flourish.
