VERSE
Moderato

She: Long a - go you wooed me, long you sought my
He: Can that be my loved one who now calls to hand, When I spurned your ad - van - ces, me, Th'one I loved then so dear - ly,

then you joined this war - ring land; Now you're a in our home - land o'er the sea. Long had I

he - ro, a Bird - man brave and bold;
wood - her, A - las for me, in vain;

O if I could tell you my heart's no long - er cold!
Nev - er had I dream - ed to hear her voice a - gain!

CHORUS

Slowly, with expression and soaring rhythm

She: Bird - man, Bird - man, you fly so high,
He: Sweet - heart, Sweet - heart, can it be true?

Soar - ing, soar - ing up in the cloud - less sky,
My hopes, long - ings, e'er have been just for you.

Bird - man, Bird - man, will you re - turn?
Sweet - heart, Sweet - heart, from war's a - larms

Could you but know for you I yearn;
Safe I will hold you, come to my arms,

Could you but know for you I yearn!
Safe I will hold you, come to my arms!

Bird - man, Bird - man, take me with you, A Both. Loved One, Loved One, ne'er shall we part, I'll hurl - ing, whirl - ing far thru the bound-less blue,

hold you 'nfold you, keep you close to my heart;

Bird - man, Bird - man, I want you to go
Loved One, Loved One, to - geth - er we'll fly

Back to A - mer - i - ca, far o'er the sea;
Back in our aer - o - plane, then by and by,

Bird - man and He - ro mine won't you take me?
In a home nest we'll rest, just you and I!
