©CE406483

JUN 30 1917

The Freedom of the World

Words & music by Eleanor Custer McLaur

Tempo di Marcia

Boldly -

In seven — ten seventy six — we fought the fight for Lib - er - We free a dead - ly foe — who broke by force and ty - an -

- ty — our fa - vo - rite of the time — swore that their
- ny who laughs — and scorns at all — our forms of dis - ease be free — And Freed - dom rose the Bat - tle Cry For True Dem - o - cra - cy — We must be crushed in - to the dust that

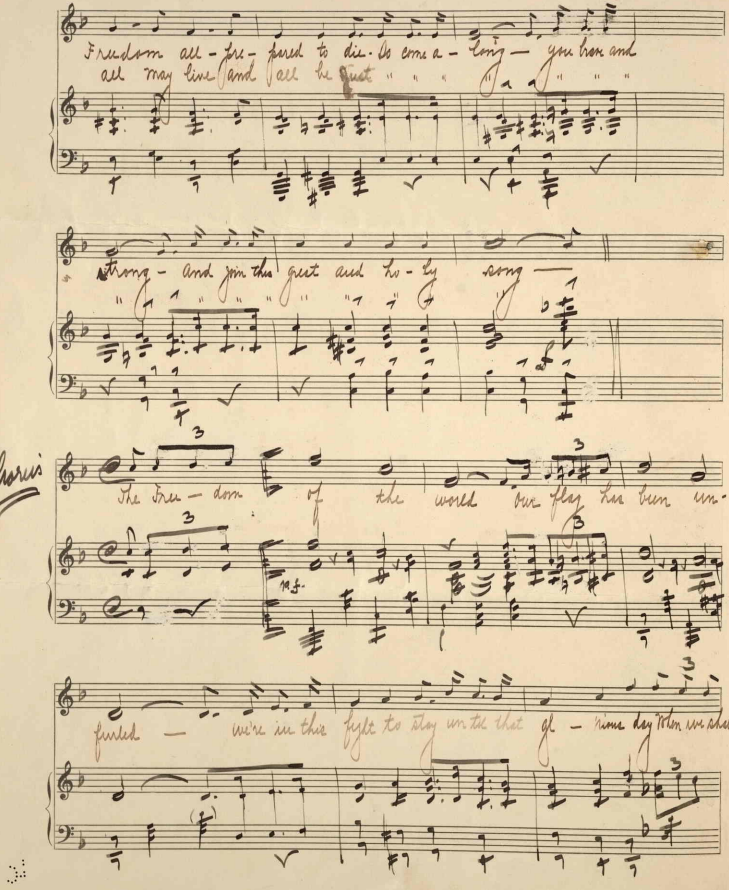
OLIVER DITSON CO. BOSTON
Made in Germany.
M1646
.M
No. 50.



Freedom all - fre - fered to die. Be come a - long — you brave and all may live and all be free string - and join this great and ho - ly song — Chorus
The Free - dom of the world we play has been un - furled — we're in this fight to stay un - til that glo - rious day When we shall all be Free — to roam on Land sea Our Claim-ing Li - ber - ty — so-lute us fight fight fight with all our might and right be free dom of the World the free dom = World —