

APR 28 1917

©J.E.403340

(COPYRIGHT)

Introduction

TO AMES ✓

Words and Music By J.M.F. McCloskey

(1. sfz) A meri cans yo freemen A wake to your Country's
 (2. mp) The little ones are cry ing a far a cross the call Shall one be now found wanting when others give their all? The sea To those who can not hear them for that which can not be: Their world a waits your action your friends of old have need In this their hour of peaceful homes tho' lowly are. now no lon ger there The men see fa ces

No. 3

H1646

H

'trial their brav est suf fer bleed For God and Home and Country: their us too Be quick to do your share For those you love are threatened: shall lives they gladly give Shall you whom they as- sisted Stand idly by and their lot be as hard A rouse a rise and follow A -

1st Verse ending

live. -mer i cans on guard.

2. Verse ending

