VOICE

Good - bye, moth - er, I am Moth - er dear, I'll write you leav - ing, Leav - ing for the bat - tle's might - y sway, of - ten, Long - ing once a - gain to be with you,

Dry your tears and don't be greiv - ing, Soon we'll see the dawn of free - dom's Watch - ing ev - ning shad - ows soft - en, As in child - hood days I used to day. You'll be proud to know, my dear moth - er, do. At the door a - gain you will meet me,

M1646

That it was your own dar-ling son, Who when out-raged jus-tice was When I re-turn from o'er the sea, Smiles and kiss-es once more will call - ing, 'Mong the first left home and shoul-dered gun.

greet me, In the glor-ious dawn of lib-er-ty.

CHORUS mf - f

So fare-well dear moth-er, be brave to-day, Un-cle Sam has called me and the boys are on their way, To strive for free-dom whose e-ter-nal light Will give us strength for-ev-er-more To up-hold the cause of right. So right.
