HANDWRITING ON THE WALL

Transposed and Copyrighted by H. DOUGLAS LAYMAN, Pittsburgh, Pa.

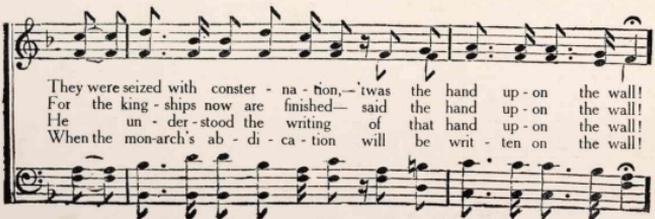

1. At the feast of BILL KAISER and a thou-sand of his hordes,
2. See the brave cap-tain Wilson as he gazed up-on the throne,
3. See the faith, zeal and courage, that would dare to do the right,
4. So our deeds are re-cord-ed, there's a hand that's writ-ing now:

While they drank from gory ves-sels, as the nak-ed truth records—
And re-buked the haughty mon-arch for his mill-ion deeds of wrong:
Which the peo-ple gave to Wil-son—'twas the se-cret of his might,
Sol-diers give your hearts to free-dom—to its right-eous mandates bow,

In the night, as they revelled in the roy-al pal-ace hall,
As he read out the writing—'twas the doom of one and all,
At his desk in the White-house, or in the Sen-ate hall
For the day is approaching— it must come to one and all,

They were seized with conste-ration,—'twas the hand up-on the wall!
For the king-ships now are finished— said the hand up-on the wall!
He un-der-stood the writing of that hand up-on the wall!
When the mon-arch's ab-di-cation will be writ-ten on the wall!

CHORUS

'Twas the hand for peace on the wall!
hand up-on the wall!

'Twas the hand for peace on the wall!
hand up-on the wall! Shall our records be "Found wanting!" or
hand up-on the wall!

shall we be "Found helping!" While that hand is writing on the wall?
hand up-on the wall!
