Gee I'm feel- ing glad hon-est I am —
I can see him now hap-py and free —

Because I gave my lad to uncle Sam — Then he sailed a — I standing by the plough waving to me — Seems but yes- ter —

-way
-day
I nev-er shal for- get that day —
he packed his kit and marched a- way —
I've been waiting long waiting for news — Now I've got Now he's o- ver there doing his share — and I know he's ever for the blues — glad to be there — Chorus
I got a let-ter from my al-ex-and — al-ex-and — lov-ing man —

He's ver-y busy out in No man's land — Shoot-ing They've got the Germans scooting I always knew that he would do his part — from the start — bless his heart — I hear they've pinned a med-al on his chest — He would-n't write me why, but I can guess —
