

OCT 21 1918

©CE436286

Come On Boys

BY
MRS. IRENE M. MCGINLEY

PUBLISHED BY Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

M1646

.M

Come On Boys

MRS. IRENE M. McGINLEY

Lively

f

Voice

A lit - tle more than a year a - go one spring day, Old
 They came from the north a - cross the snow and ice, They

Vamp

p

Kais - er Bill sent a mes - sage which read this way: "Now old Un - cle Sam I've been thinking came from the South from the cot - ten fields of white, They were Yankees from the East and quite a lot; You can be - lieve it or not, the sea be - longs to me und Gett, If you don't Red men from the West, All to fight for their Coun - try and the Flag they loved best; They've bid their want to get hurt you bet - ter keep a - way!" Un - cle Sam rolled up his sleeves and then we heard him say:

 loved ones good - bye and sailed a - cross the sea To crush the Hun, save Freedom, Hon - or and Lib - er - ty.

CHORUS

"Come on boys, put on the kha-ki, come on boys, put on the blue; We'll show this mon-ster
 "Hur-rah for the boys in kha-ki, hur-rah for the boys in blue; They've shown this mon-ster mp-f

Hun what A-mer-i-ca can do, We'll sail a-cross the sea, we'll help to fight in Hun what A-mer-i-ca can do, They've sailed a-cross the sea, they're fight-ing now in

No Man's Land, We'll give him to un-der-stand he can't die-tate to your old
 No Man's Land, They gave him to un-der-stand he can't die-tate to our old

Un-cle Sam, Hur-rah for them all, they will an-swer the call, They will Un-cle Sam, Hur-rah for ti-Sam-mies, they've an-swered the call, They're fight-fight for A-mer-i-ca, she shall nev-er fall," "Come on fall," ing for A-mer-i-ca, she shall nev-er fall," "Hur-rah fall,"

1 2

