INTRODUCTION

1. There's a move-ment o'er the na - tion, That de-serves sup-port from all, — It's as-
2. They're the pick of our great coun-try, They're the boys who won the war, — All they sem - bly for the sol - diers, Men who heard their coun-try's call. Tho' want is rec-og - ni - tion, They don't ask for an - y more. Let's peace has come, all praise is due To the boys who made it so; — Let's find them jobs and farms per-haps, They're en - ti - tled to a chance, — The give our help as best we can, It's a du-ty that we owe.

 boys who made the Kai - ser quit, On the bat-tle fields of France.

CHORUS

We're proud of our coun-try, We're proud of her men, They'd like to be start-ing all o-ver a-gain; They've seen ac-tive ser-vice, They've been in the fight, They bat-tled with all their might. But now that it's o-ver They've come home to stay, Their trou-bles have turned to joys, But they need lots of boost-ing ev-ry day, The A - mer - i - can Le - gion boys. boys.
