

OCT 19 1918

1916 46
.14

STANDS

FOR

YANKEE

A SMILING, LAUGHING YANKEE, BUT BE NOT DECEIVED
FOR THE SMILE HE WEARS IS SOMETIMES CAMOUFLAGE:
THERE'S A KICK IN EVERY DROP OF BLOOD
THAT COURSES THROUGH HIS VEINS
AND HIS PUNCH IS LIKE A HEAVY-WEIGHT BARRAGE.

WORDS BY

JOHN MAC NAUGHTON

MUSIC BY

JEAN MAC NAUGHTON

R. W. HEFFELFINGER
LOS ANGELES

"Y" Stands for Yankee.

Words by
JOHN MacNAUGHTON.

Music by
JEAN MacNAUGHTON.

1. "Y" stands for Yan-kee, he's game down to the ground. "L" stands for
 2. "Y" stands for Yan-kee, "U. S." for "Un - cle Sam". "V" stands for

"Loy - al - ty" - he's true where - ev - er found; On ev - 'ry sea and bat - tle field, in
 "Val - or" - just match them if you can. In peace they're gen - tle as the dove, but

Copyright MCMXVIII by John MacNaughton.
 All rights reserved.

con-test or in play, He has a lit-tle jok-er that will bring the prize a-way.
wild-cats in the fray, Hur-rah for Yank and Un-cle Sam they'll bring the prize a-way.

CHORUS.

You Yanks, oh you Yanks you're 'It' and then some more; Turn on the 'pep' throw in the clutch and let the ea-gle soar! There is no for-ign en-e-my, no mat-ter where he's found, Can 'put it o-ver' on you Yanks or bring your col-ors down! down!

Note: Play the broken chords from the top down instead of from the bottom up.

2

447195