1.

Your country, boys, is proud of you,
 Her sons so brave, devout and true,
 Upon the Marne you showed your might,
 You've shown the world that you can fight.
 With Britain, Italy and France,
 You joined Democracy's defense,
 And bravely fighting side by side,
 You helped to turn the battle's tide.

Chorus:

Hail, we greet you, beloved dear boys,
 We're glad, we're happy, we rejoice
 To see you home all well and safe,
 Three cheers, hurrah, our soldiers brave!
 Your country, boys, is proud of you,
 Your folks, your friends, your sweethearts too,
 We're glad, we're happy, we rejoice,
 And thank the Lord ~~we~~ <sup>we</sup> have such boys.

2.

When Mankind sent to you the call,
 You prompt and quick assembled all,
 From East, from West, from South, from North,
 For Right of Man to draw the sword.
 About your deeds there's lots to tell,
 You did your bit and did it well,
 You did not shirk nor did you ask
 How big or perilous the task.

Chorus:

As above.

Dedicated

TO THE BRAVE AND THE FREE FROM THE GLORIOUS LAND OF LIBERTY,

 OF MAN AND FOR WORLD'S EMANCIPATION.
