Marcia

f

The world was filled with ecsta-cy On that No - vem - ber morn, The
The Huns they tried our met-al And said we could not fight The All hon - or to those brave boys And black A - meri - cans too, Who

mf p

joyful news was flashed a-cross the sea ——— The Ger-mans they sur - ren - der Was the answer came at Marne and at Bel - leau ——— They fired on our hos - pit - als Shot died that our coun - try might be free ——— They tried to sink our troop-ships, But the mes - sage from the front Thank God we are free from au - toc - ra - cy .

ev - ry - thing in sight But they could not stop our boys in blue. O
"U"boats would not do Hur - rah for those Jack-ies of the sea.

Chorus

The musical score is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part includes dynamic markings such as p and f. The score is divided into six systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Vic - to - ry oh Vic - to - ry You have made the na - tions free Those kha - ki boys have fought a gal - lant fight All hail to Black Jack Per - shing When the Yan - kee Troops came march - ing Back to home and lib - er - ty The moth - ers they'll be weep - ing, The sweet - hearts will be sing - ing Wel - come to De - moc - ra - cy. O cy." The score concludes with a double bar line and repeat signs.

Vic - to - ry oh Vic - to - ry You have made the na - tions free Those kha - ki boys have fought a gal - lant fight All hail to Black Jack Per - shing When the Yan - kee Troops came march - ing Back to home and lib - er - ty The moth - ers they'll be weep - ing, The sweet - hearts will be sing - ing Wel - come to De - moc - ra - cy. O cy.
