

The Nations' Call.

Words & Music by
CHARLES R. MEYER.

M1646
.M

52

Respectfully dedicated to Grace Moser.
The Nations' Call.

Words & Music by
CHARLES R. MEYER.

Piano introduction in 2/4 time, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

Com-mand march on and we o - bey The call to Oh hard it is to lis - ten to The stern com -
A hope springs thru' a dark-ened cloud That soon will

Vamp

A vamp section for the piano, consisting of a series of chords in the right hand and a steady bass line in the left hand.

du - ty far a - way March, march, march to yon - der pier And then we hear the mand of those who rule Tho' fear have we of pur - pose there And pray to God to bring the pale grey light So dear to all of those who see Be - yond this trial a Piano accompaniment for the second system, continuing the melody and bass line.

bu - gle call For us to sail the o - cean blue To pay the price so dear for all.
see it thru' Yes life is sweet to all who know Gods gift of love on earth a - bound.
just re - ward For men will fol - low His com - mand Un - til they see the vic - t'ry won.

Piano accompaniment for the third system, concluding the piece.

Chorus.

March, march, march on they tramp To the field of bat-tle o-ver there

Sail, sail, sail is the great com-mand For the na-tions call is there.

March, march, march on they tramp To the field of bat-tle o-ver there

Sail, sail, sail is the great com-mand For the na-tions call is there.

487010