©CLE 122433

MAR 28 1918

In The Ages Rolling On.

(The Allies' Song.)

Words by Ralph Leigh.

Music by Eduardo Marzo

Allegro Moderato

mf

1. The Kai - ser a - vowed "O the law not to kill; Eggs hate me - to
2. For gre - dom or sight! For the al - might - y's law. Man is a
3. The flag of pred - tors no more floats the shark; No more shall be men, but to kings it is still: May curse it de - vise. I tell you, Fritz mit quit - tor when bul - lets make war: Not par - a - dise Kai - ser shall pos - sess or take flamt - ed her thrice som - bre bars: The red's for the blop on the mark the tra cres.

cres.

ms! Our hut - ter is not the ma - nure for Hums; Our God, A curse in the cot - most hut de - fied hords! Our came; The white's for her hats, ev - er liv - id and vain; The

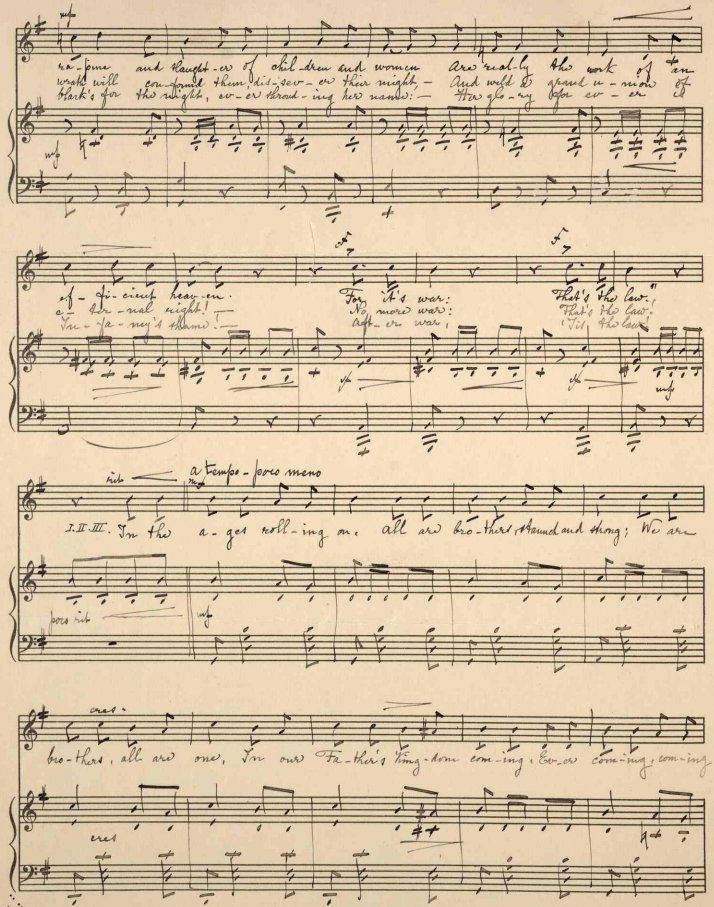
M1646 .M

DITSON BRAND NUMBER 50 Made in U.S.A.



wife
sons and daughters of children such women are really the work of wars will confound them dis-sev-er their nights — And wilt thou grant us minds of black's for the night, ev-er thread-ing her hands: — How sly-ly hope ev-er
mf
of-fi-cious heav-en.
a fu-ral night!
Ye-je-ny's thanks.
For it's war:
No more war:
after war,
That's the law.
That's the law."
Viv. the law.
mf
rit
a Tempo - poco meno
I. II. III. In the a-ges roll-ing on, all are bro-thers Round and strong; We are poco rit
mf
bro-thers, all are ones, In our Fa-ther's King-dom coming, For-ev coming, coming cres.
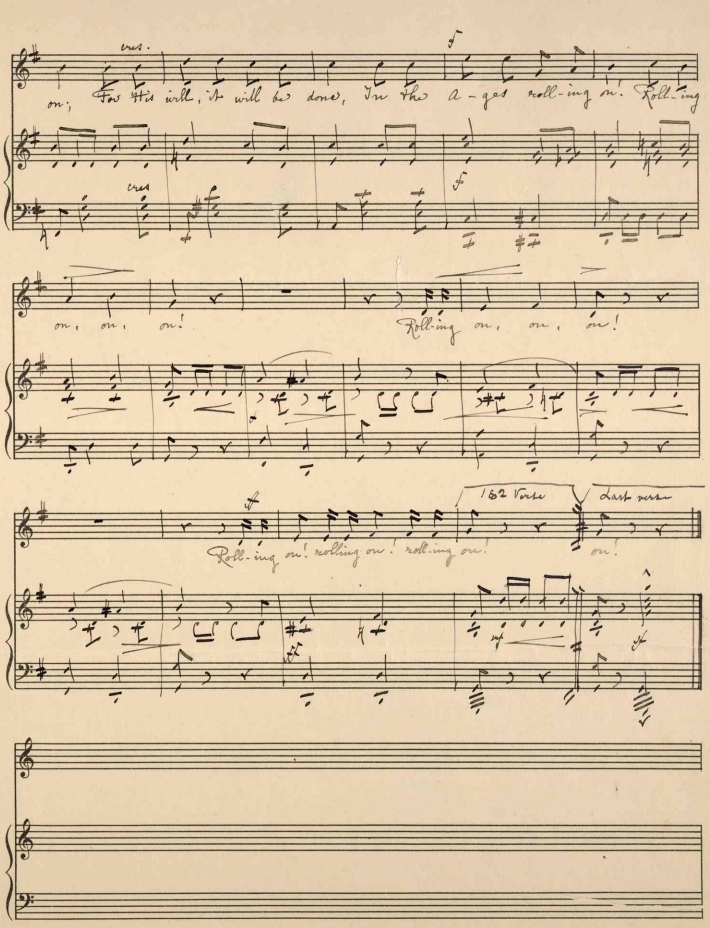
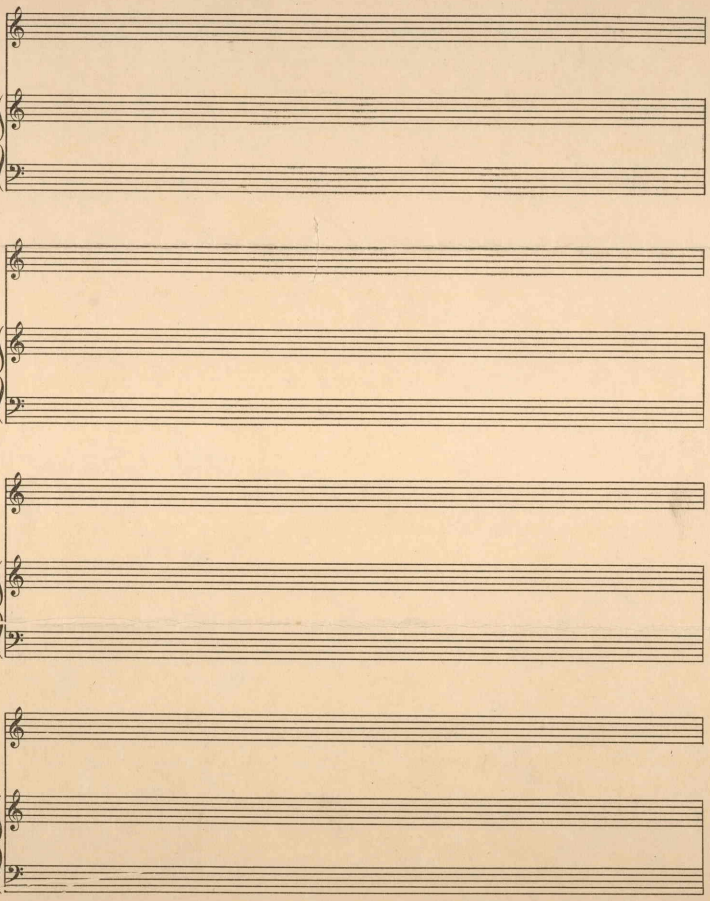
cres
ff





cres.
on;
For His will, it will be done, In the a-gas roll-ing on. Roll-ing
cres
on, on, on!
Roll-ing on, on, on!
Roll-ing on! rolling on! rolling on!
on.
1&2 Voice
Last verse