

MAY 19 1919

Cressey and Allen's OCTAVO EDITION.

THREE RESPONSES

a BLESSED ARE THE PURE IN HEART Tenor Solo and Quartet	}	C.R.CRESSEY .12
b GUIDE ME O THOU GREAT JEHOVAH Alto Solo and Quartet
c HIDING IN THEE Quartet
SUN OF MY SOUL Quartet, Soprano Solo and Tenor Duet and Quartet	C.R.CRESSEY .10
FADING STILL FADING Alto Solo and Quartet	C.R.CRESSEY .08
ABIDE WITH ME	C.M.MILLIKEN .10
CHRISTMAS CAROL - BRIGHTEST AND BEST	C.R.CRESSEY .15
LORD OF ALL BEING THRONED AFAR	C.R.CRESSEY .16
CANTATE DOMINO IN E \flat	C.R.CRESSEY .20
THE NIGHT HAS A THOUSAND EYES	GEO.T.GOLDTHWAITE .06
SERVICE MUSIC	LATHAM TRUE .12
THE DAY IS GENTLY SINKING TO A CLOSE	C.R.CRESSEY .16
AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL Male Voices	WILL C.MACFARLANE .12
AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL Female Voices	WILL C.MACFARLANE .12
A CHILD THIS DAY IS BORN Christmas Carol	LATHAM TRUE .08
WHEN THE KHAKI LAD COMES HOME March Song	WILLARD MAYBERRY .12

DATE OF PUBLICATION

MAY 9, 1919

CRESSEY AND ALLEN
PORTLAND, ME.

M1646

.M

When the Khaki Lad Comes Home

March Song

Words by ANNIE M. L. HAWES

Music by WILLARD MAYBERRY

Con spirito

1. When comes the big ship bring-ing in — The boys in
2. On shell - torn hill in No Man's Land, — Where dead un -
3. But now he comes! O great ship haste! — We watch by

Kha - ki clad, — When up and down all bur - ied lie, — With joy - ous breath he tower and town, — O glad bells ring while thro' the town The folks with joy go mad, — flout - ed death, And baf - fled death went by, — prince and king Their use - less crowns lay down. —

— Up - on the great ship's crowd - ed deck — There's — His feet have trod - den ghist - ly ways — Where — O great ship haste! We wait for him, — The on - ly one I'll see, In Kha - ki

com -rade's blood left stain, The daunt - less na - tion's longed for guest, The gal - lant clad, the lit - tle lad Who won the war for me.

lad in Kha - ki clad Knows well the ghost - filled plain.
lad in Kha - ki clad His war cross on his breast.

CHORUS

4 & 2. Call out, great bells, from shore to shore, Call
3. Call out, great bells, from shore to shore, Call out a - cross the foam; And bid the lad in out a - cross the foam; Oh, greet the lad in Kha - ki clad; O, bid the lad come home.

Kha - ki clad; And bid him wel - come home.

459687