Mush-rooms sprout and spring up in a night, But it nev-er was so with the Plough your land and raise plen-ty food stuff, Keep on work-ing un-til you Go on boys! al-tho' Kem-mel is gone, From the way the thing looks they can't cause of right; Takes time for great pur-po-ses to ri-pen, you know; Some have e-nough; Don't fuss a-bout flour, we'll just eat meal if we must; If hold out long; Their being on the hill top does not spell we are beat; We're blood must be shed 'long here as we go; Great gain-ing, lit-tle los-ing;

"push come to shove," make bread out of dust; Our ban-ner must keep fly-ing;
still "a-round here" with a might-y bloom-in' heat; The Kai-ser must "back wa-ter"
