So you're leav - ing France to - day, For the good old U. S. A. Let me

Till ready

You'll be sail - ing right a - way, I have one thing more to say Just re - p shake you by the hand, "Soldier Pal" Don't for - get when you go home, Stop right mind me to the folks, "Soldier Pal" Tell them I'll be home some day, And be off at my home town. Give them all my best re - gards, "Soldier Pal" Tell my best gal I'll be glad enough to say That we won our vic - to - ry, "Soldier Pal" I can pic - ture in my home When I'm thru a-cross the foam, So good luck and good - bye, "Soldier Pal" mind Some-one dear I left be - hind, Now she's wait - ing for me, "Soldier Pal"

Church street bright and gay, Just like old Broad-way It cheered me up the day I went a - way, Re-mind me to the old white way; Where no one ev - er wears a frown; Send a kiss to my moth - er and my love to one other, When you're down in old New Haven town.
