copyright Office
JUN 11 1917 ©E433809

AMERICA FOR EVERMORE

Tempo de Marcio

Charles C Miles

My coun-try of the valiant
My coun-try of the valiant

free, A-mer-i-ca, where pil-grims trod,
free, A-wake in thy might for the prize,

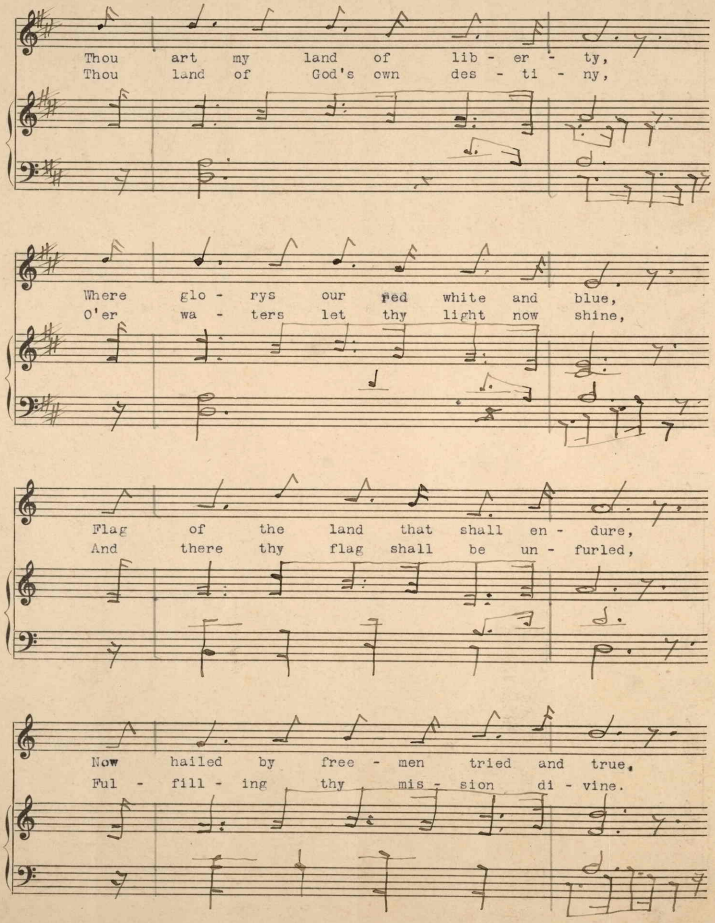
When seek-ing here a peace se-cure,
Of in-de-pend-ence for the world,

And free-dom found to wor-ship God;
To great-er heights then shalt thou rise;

M1646
.M

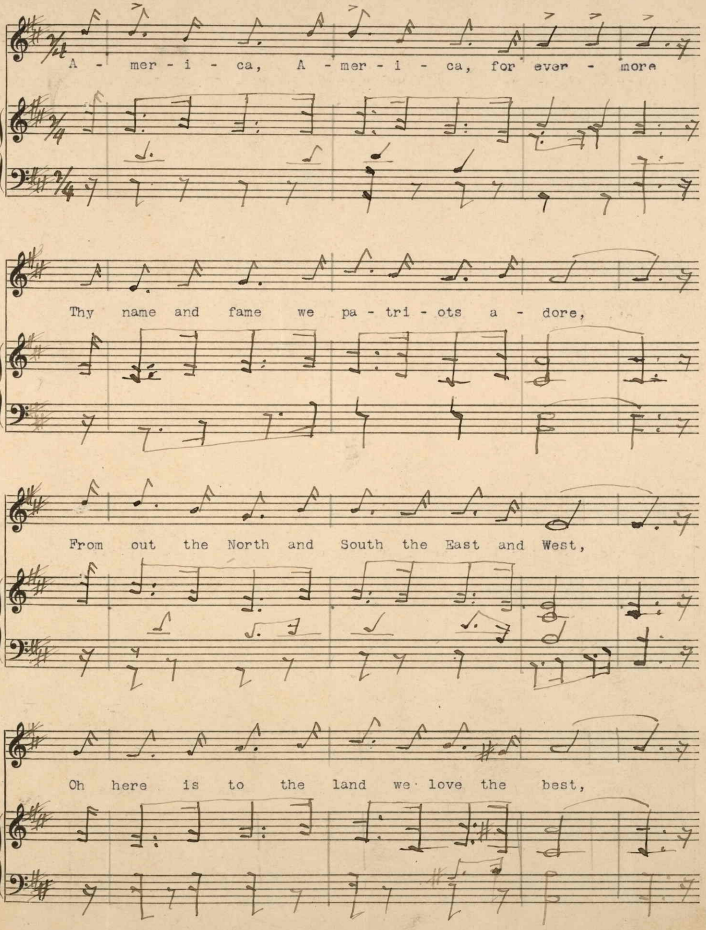
Copyright 1917 Charles C Miles

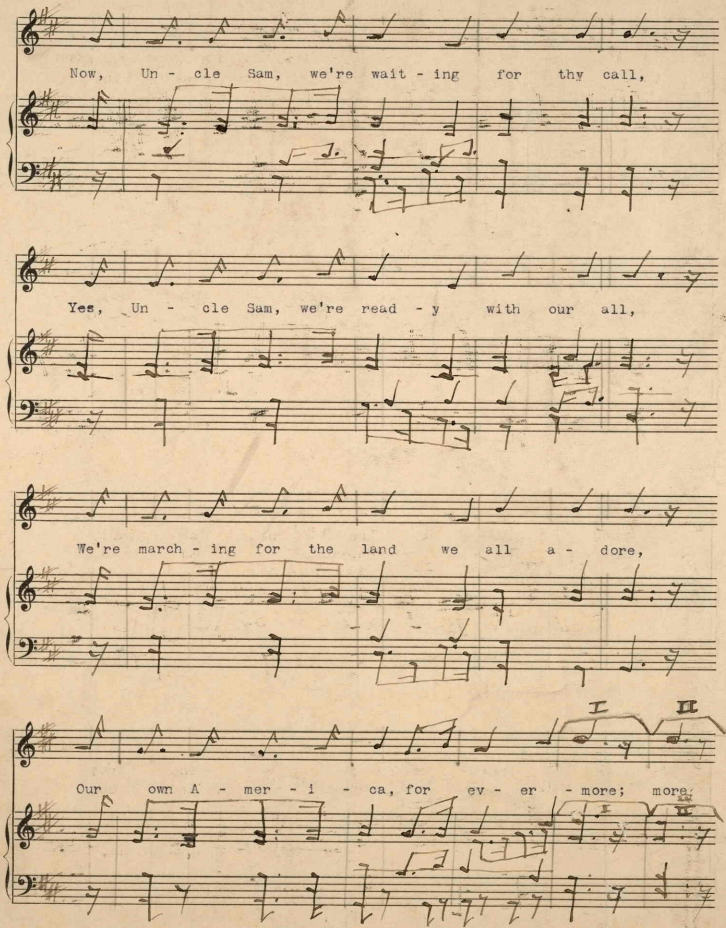
B.F.W.
Made in Germany for
The B. F. Wood Music Co.,
Boston, New-York, London.
No. 52.



Thou art my land of lib - er - ty,
Thou land of God's own des - ti - ny,
Where glo - rys our red white and blue,
O'er wa - ters let thy light now shine,
Flag of the land that shall en - dure,
And there thy flag shall be un - furled,
Now hailed by free - men tried and true,
Ful - fill - ing thy mis - sion di - vine.

CHORUS -- Con Spirito





Now, Un - cle Sam, we're wait - ing for thy call,
Yes, Un - cle Sam, we're read - y with our all,
We're march - ing for the land we all a - dore,
I
II
Our own A - mer - i - ca, for ev - er - more; more.