IN FLANDERS FIELDS

By Lieutenant Colonel Dr. John D. McCrae, of Montreal, Canada

I

"In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row —
That mark our place — and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing fly;
'Above the crosses low they soar —
Where once was heard the cannon's roar.'

II

We are the dead, short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields — 'oh, heed our cry;—'
'If wrongs we fought shall still abide —
How shall we slumber side by side?'

III

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch — be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep — though poppies grow
In Flanders fields, 'mid sunset's glow.' "
