APR -5 1917

WHEN JERRY FLYNN GETS TO OLD BERLIN

By E Ray. McCloskey and
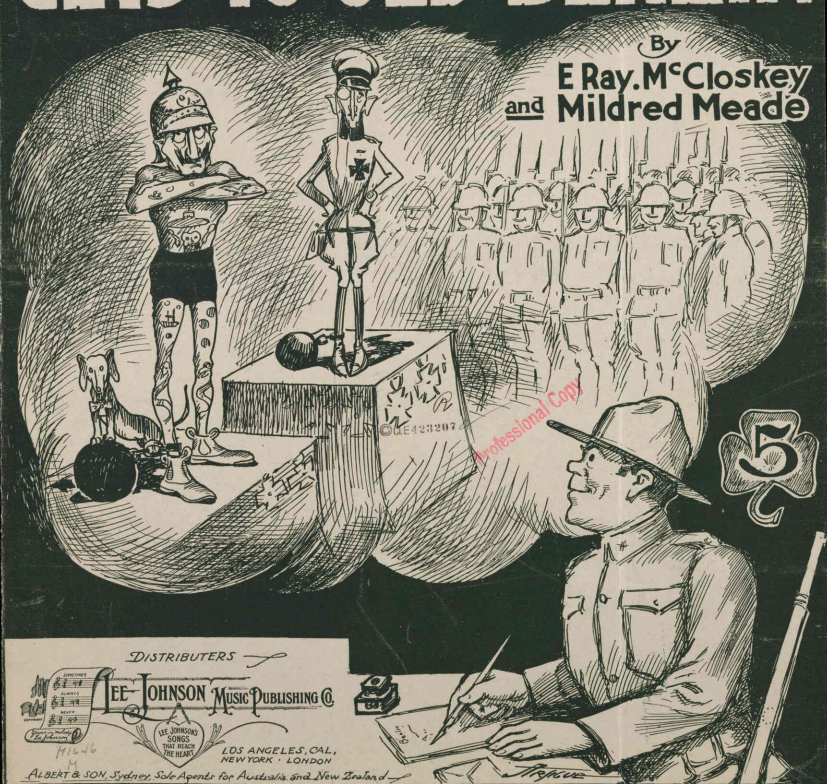
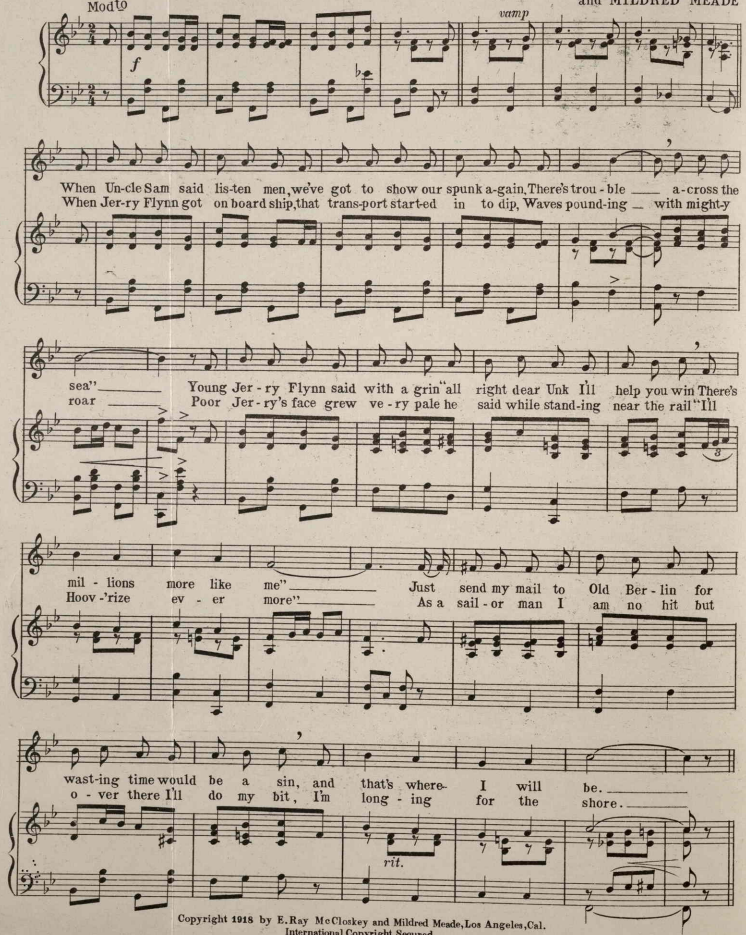
Mildred Meade



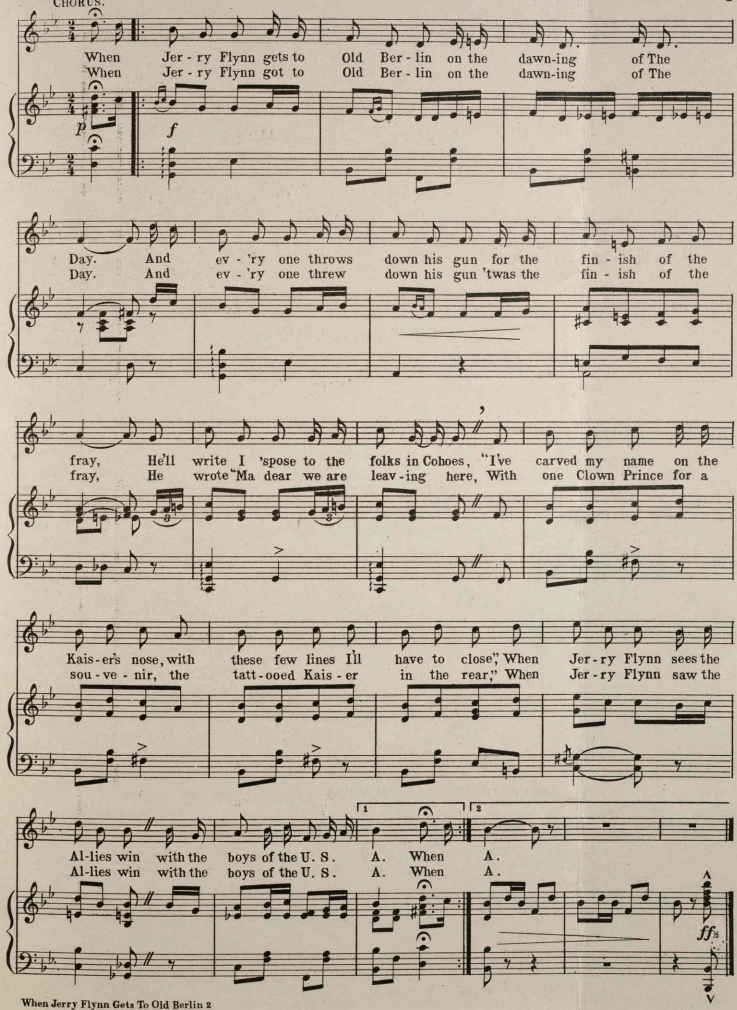
DISTRIBUTERS
LEE JOHNSON MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
LEE JOHNSONS SONGS THAT REACH THE HEART
LOS ANGELES, CAL.
NEW YORK · LONDON
ALBERT & SON, Sydney, Sole Agents for Australia and New Zealand

When Jerry Flynn Gets To Old Berlin

By E. RAY McCLOSKEY
and MILDRED MEADE



Copyright 1918 by E. Ray McCloskey and Mildred Meade, Los Angeles, Cal.
International Copyright Secured



CHORUS.
When Jer - ry Flynn gets to Old Ber - lin on the dawn-ing of The When Jer - ry Flynn got to Old Ber - lin on the dawn-ing of The p f
Day. And ev - 'ry one throws down his gun for the fin - ish of the Day. And ev - 'ry one threw down his gun 'twas the fin - ish of the fray, He'll write I 'spose to the folks in Cohoes, "I've carved my name on the fray, He wrote "Ma dear we are leav - ing here, With one Clown Prince for a Kais - er's nose, with these few lines I'll have to close," When Jer - ry Flynn sees the sou - ve - nir, the tatt - ooed Kais - er in the rear," When Jer - ry Flynn saw the 1
2
Al - lies win with the boys of the U. S. A. When A.
Al - lies win with the boys of the U. S. A. When A.
ff

The Patriotic Song Hit of the Hour

SERVICE FLAG, EVERY EYE'S ON YOU

By E. Ray McCloskey and Mildred Meade

America's Most Stirring Song Tribute to Her
Fighting Men— A Thrill in the Appropriate Words
Set to Martial Music with Haunting Melody

Ask Your Favorite Music Dealer

Now In The Publishers Hands

A LINE FROM SOMEWHERE

By E. Ray McCloskey and Mildred Meade

A Soldier Waltz BalladThat Will Sing Itself
Straight to the Heart. A Most Singable War
Number— the First Message From No Man's Land

Be Sure To Watch For This Number

42705