

Don't Be A Slacker
Uncle Sam Wants A Backer

WORDS AND MUSIC BY
J. J. MONAGHAN

Published by
J. J. MONAGHAN
406 Arch Street, Norristown, Pa.

Don't Be A Slacker Uncle Sam Wants A Backer

J. J. MONAGHAN

Tempo di Marcia

VOICE

If the Kai-ser should rule all the world, what then, The gold you saved you
If the Kai-ser should go up to Heav'n, what then, The time'd be short for

VAMP

could not spend, He'd put his hand down in your pock-et, Take your watch and go hock him to spend, The Lord would say "you did a mean-trick, There's the road down to old it, _____ And your back to kill-ing slav-er - y you soon would have to bend, If the Huns should win this Nick, _____ This is no place for a mur-der-er of wom-en, babes and men, When the Kai-ser lands in war, what then? _____ Back to slav-er - y you would be sent, But if you have a hell, what then? _____ Then the dev - il will have one more friend. Old Nick he could not quar-ter make the Kai-ser's time short-er, For ev-ry one to Un-cle Sam you lend. _____ hate for he would make a good mate, For there never was a good deed done by them. _____

CHORUS

If you buy a Lib-er-ty Bond, what then? _____ To send some food across the pond to them _____

— Who are fight-ing for you and fight-ing for me, Fight-ing for peace and human-i-ty. So buy a Lib-er-ty Bond to-day and we'll keep the Huns a-way. Don't be a slack-er, Un-cle

Sam wants a back-er, And u-ni-ver-sal peace will come to stay. _____ If you stay. _____

1875-1876