

A Song without a Chorus

YANKS
GO TO IT
OVER THERE!

By LE ROY MOORE

Published and For Sale By
AMERICAN MUSIC PUBLISHERS

Auditorium Building, Chicago.

COPYRIGHTED 1918 BY Le Roy MOORE

Price
25¢

YANKS, GO TO IT, "OVER THERE."

Written by LEROY MOORE.

1. The Yanks are fight - ing well, o - ver there, o - ver there, The
2. The Kai - ser is a joke, o - ver there, o - ver there, They
3. Our boys are brave and true, o - ver there, o - ver there, Both the Huns, they run like h-l, o - ver there With the sure will get his goat, o - ver there They will gray . . . and the blue, o - ver there A - -

Copyright, 1918, by Leroy Moore.

clang - ing of the steel, And the Yan - kees at their heel, Oh, how hang him on a tree, So . . . ev - 'ry one can see, And . . .
 mid the aw - ful din, The . . . Al - lies sure will win, And fun - ny they must feel O - ver there, o - ver there, Oh, how set the whole world free, O - ver there, o - ver there, And . . .

 cap - ture "Old Ber - lin," O - ver there, o - ver there, Von . . .

fun - ny they must feel, o - ver there,
 set the whole world free, o - ver there,
 Hin - den - burg thrown in, o - ver there,

accel.

7 GREAT SONGS

ALL RECENT PUBLICATIONS

JUST OUT

"YANKEE GIRLS"—The only song of its kind. Beautiful Title Page. The only song giving full tribute to our noble Yankee Girls who are doing their great part to help win the war. Words by D. A. Carson. Music by Vincent J. Nery, Philippine composer.

Price, 15 Cents.

"MY LUVIN' BABY"—A Filipino rag lament with a new go to it of the boys in France for the girls they left behind. Music by Vincent J. Nery. Words by D. A. Carson.

Price, 15 Cents.

"SAMMY"—The greatest of great soldier songs. A Big Seller. Music by Sumner and Friedman. Words by C. A. Sweetland. Magnificent three-color title page of highest art. March.

Price, 15 Cents.

"MY AEROPLANE GIRL"—New waltz song by D. A. Carson, on a novel theme. Words and music catchy. This song occupies a very high "plane." Read letter from Orville Wright: "I thank you very much for your kindness in sending me a copy of your good song, 'My Aeroplane Girl!'" Hq. S. C. A. S. Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill.

Your music dealer should have all of these great songs on his counter. If you cannot obtain what you want of him, fill out and send in the coupon below.

"Accept my thanks for 'Aeroplane Girl.' It has been turned over to Y. M. C. A. here and I am sure it will be greatly appreciated and enjoyed by all the boys. Russell H. Carpenter, 1st Lieut. A. S. S. R. C., Adjutant."

Price, 15 Cents.

"RAG ME TO THAT RAG TIME MELODY"—Extra page. Words and music by R. A. MacDonald. "A rattling rag that will rip the rafters."

Price, 15 Cents.

"U. S. HONOR SONG"—A spirited march, dedicated to the Red Star Animal Relief Corps. Author's profit to help the war dogs. Words by Mrs. C. A. Grassell. Music by Madame Louise D'Artell, a Swiss musician.

Price, 15 Cents.

"I'LL BE WAITING FOR YOU, DEARIE"—By D. A. Carson. An immediate HIT. The cheering words of "the girl he left behind," which makes the heart of the soldier or sailor so light. Not a war song, but a war background.

Price, 15 Cents.

The 7 Great War Songs for $1.00
AMERICAN MUSIC PUBLISHERS
105E, Auditorium Building, Chicago