The image displays a handwritten musical score for piano, organized into 12 systems. Each system typically consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The notation includes various rhythmic values such as eighth, sixteenth, and thirty-second notes, as well as rests and ornaments. The time signature changes throughout the piece, starting with 3/4 and moving through 2/4, 3/8, 4/4, 3/2, and 6/8. The manuscript shows signs of being a working draft, with some ink bleed-through and corrections. The paper is aged and yellowed.

This is a handwritten musical score for piano, consisting of 12 systems of staves. Each system typically contains a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, sixteenth notes), rests, and dynamic markings such as 74 and 75. The score is written in a single system of staves, with some systems featuring a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and others featuring a single clef. The handwriting is clear and legible, with some decorative flourishes in the bass line. The paper shows signs of age, with some discoloration and a small mark in the bottom right corner.

Words and Music by Tom Moore

Music Arranged by John Salb.

Dear Old Glory proud and free
Stretch your arms across the sea
Sunny France is calling Union Jack's are falling
Fighting for liberty
Its a case of de or die
And it's up to you and I
Say the word and Teddy's got his gun and ready
Take them this reply

CHORUS

I hear you calling in line we're falling
I'm from the U. S. A.
Uncle Sam just gave the order Yankee boys back from the border
Soon will be on their way
Tell them we're coming things will be humming
Welcome the Blue and Gray - Old Glory
When you hear that band play Dixie watch those boys in blue get mixie
I'm from the U. S. A.

Every sound of a distant gun
Seems to say "Thy Will be Done"
Watchful waitings thru ther'ds nothing left to do
But fight 'till the victory's won
In the trenches side by side
Allies brave whate'er betide
On your way and mind you Uncle Sam's behind you
Yankee guns replied
