

ALL HAIL!

FLAG of the FREE

A Song for Today and Tomorrow

DEDICATED TO THE ARMY AND NAVY Y. M. C. A.

Successfully introduced by

Ruth Kincaid Bockelmann

Words and Music by

Wm. W. Moore, A. M. D. D.

ALL HAIL!

FLAG OF THE FREE.

Introduction Words and Music by Wm. W. Moore

All Hail, Flag of the free, Flag of the land and wave! Speak thou loudly to me thy All Hail, Flag of the strong, Flag of the mount and main! Lead us vic - to - ri - ous on, may All Hail, Flag of the true, Flag of the field and tide! We pledge al - le - giance to you a mf cresc.

call to the true and brave! Thy crimson and white speak free - dom and right to a cour - age nev - er wane! Thy white is for might the might of the right, and peo - ple true — and tried! Thy red is for blood of free - men shed and their ty - rant menaced world; May the men of our land u - ni - ted - ly stand, as to bat - tle you're un - right our cause and just; Sweep o - ver the sea, the per - ish - ing free, in the God of right we sons can but be true; If lib - er - ty plead, we'll follow the lead of the red, the white and cresc. f rit.

CHORUS

furled
trust blue } Thy white is for might, the might of the right, Thy red for the blood of freemen shed, Thy mf

blue with its stars and the radiant bars, is free-dom's flag, the ty - rants dread. ty - rant's dread cresc. D. C. f

ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS TO

WM. W. MOORE

IN CARE OF

Flanner-Hafsoos Piano House

417 Broadway

MILWAUKEE