VOICE:

Oh Oh Joy Everyheart is beating with glee For Peace has again come at last after four years of shell fires desolation and destruction Trenches in every beating heart Flags waving in the air Horns blowing everywhere in celebration of our peace smiling and gladness everyplace For the birth of a new world to last and reign for Democracy For the Battle is over now Our Victory has been won our Prayer has been heard by the Lord Our fond dream has come true

CHORUS

This day we celebrate the great event Of the end of the World's War after so many years of fierce battles the sunshine again for all Freedom + Liberty we have won the realization of our dream Hurrah for the everlasting peace of the world

(Voice) Victory Words and music By Alice Michaels

Oh! Oh! Joy every-heart is beating with glee For Peace again has come at last,
After four years reign of shell fire, desolation and destruction Sunshine in every beating heart Flags waving in the air, Horns blowing everywhere in celebration of our Peace.

Smiling and gladness everywhere
For this is the birth of a new World to last
For the Great Battle is over now
Our Victory has been won Our Prayer has been heard by the Lord
Our fond dream has come true.

Chorus

This day we celebrate the Great Event
Of the end of the World's War
After so many years of fierce Battles
The Sunshine again for us all Freedom and Liberty we have won The realization of our dream, Hurrah! Hurrah for the ever-lasting Peace of the World.
