Oh Prince of Peace — our great cre - a - tor — We look to thee — for peace di -
 When we all have — seen the light — Truth will out — and no more vine, — Join to - geth - er once more the na - tions, Oh God of war - strife, — As we rec - on o'er the wrongs, — We will turn them - — to love sub - lime, — We wrought have been — to has - ard choos - ing, — And in - to songs, — And look to him — that is di - vi - ne, — As o - ver - looked — his will be done, — We now want coun - cil a - he doth turn — the wheels of time, — For our mad - ness mong our bro - thers God of love for Thou has won.

brings but sad - ness Why not trust his all sub - lime.

CHORUS
Let's have no more prude dis - con - tent And make a life worth while content

And all join hands in na - tures liv - ing — As one and all must be for - giv - ing — Be - loved light discard thy gloom Shin - ing with don - geon and the tomb — For love rides o'er life's tu - mul - tuous o - cean To and

Valse Lento

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of four systems of music. Each system has a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The tempo is marked 'Valse Lento'. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

When the Au - tumn days have turned its leaves to gold, And hearts that's In the Au - tumn days when leaves are full - ing, And hearts that's
