My heart is stirred by tales I've heard Of our brave boys "O-ver In all the world no flag's un-furled Like the old Red, White and There! And filled with pride, close at their side, I'm with them Blue; To-day it flies 'neath for-eign skies With a glo-ry ev'-ry where. I watched them go to meet the foe On a grand-ly new. Each gal-lant lad in kha-ki clad Would have for-eign field so go-ry; And now I yearn for glad-ly died to save it; Our sail-ors, too, proved their re - turn Tri - umph - ant 'neath Old Glo - ry. staunch and true, And, now, in vic - t'ry wave it.
