

FREEDOM OF THE SEAS

WORDS AND MUSIC

BY

S. F. NICOLAI

PRICE 35 CENTS

PUBLISHED BY

S. F. NICOLAI

JACKSON, MICH.

COPYRIGHT MCMXVII BY S. F. NICOLAI

H1646

.N c.2

60

FREEDOM OF THE SEAS

Words and Music by
I. F. NICOLAI

Tempo di marcia

mf

1. We're mar - shal - ing a force su - preme, Up - on the bri - ny wave, A -
 2. So long we pa - tient - ly have borne, The treach - er - y of those, Who
 3. For Mon - arch - y up - on this earth, No long - er shall pre - vail, Since
 4. Oh proud - ly may our Flag wave on, Un - til that glo - rious day, When

mf

gainst the dead - ly sub - ma - rine, Our ves - sels for to save, Yes, have us of our Free - dom shorn, By prov - ing dead - ly foes, There God, who gave us e - qual birth, Doth Mon - arch - y as - sail, With all the na - tions'neath the sun, In u - ni - son will say: That cresc.

for the free - dom of our seas, As well as of our land; For fore we're forced to ov - er - throw, This Mon - arch - y su - preme, Which His own sword of Right - eous - ness, When He thro His dear Son, This as one grand U - ni - ted States, Hence - forth will ev - er be! Throw our in - her - ent lib - er - ties, We right - ful - ly de - mand.

 hath been spread - ing want and woe, That Time can ne'er re - deem.
 Truth em - phat - ic does ex - press: That all in Christ are one.
 o - pen wide to all its gates, Thro' all E - ter - ni - ty.

CHORUS

Then Hur - rah for the free - dom of the seas! Oh, long may our ban - ner on its breeze, Tri - um - phant unfurled, Wave on 'till all the world, Shall hon - or its lib - er - ties!

