INTRO.

SYNCRATED not too fast

I've been far a-way to the land o'er the sea I've seen much of heartaches and mis-er-y I've You've been like a moth-er Old Glo-ry so dear 'Neath your wav-ing ban-ner we need nev-er fear 'Neath your seen so much grief and of hope-less des-pair And cruel scars of an-guish the war's writ-ten there, But beau-ti-ful folds of the Stars and the Stripes You stand true for hon-or for peace and for right, So

I'm com-ing back to A-mer-i-ca mine Where Old Glo-ry waves in the peaceful sun-shine So that's why I love you Old Glory to-day And that's why I'm com-ing back ev-er to stay Where I'm com- ing back_ to the land of the brave To the land where Old Glo - ry waves, you'll wave ever more_ o'er a land of the brave Wave for - ev - er Old Glo - ry, wave.

CHORUS

I want to live_ where Glo - ry waves, I want to live_ where Glo - ry waves,

Un- der the dear old Red, White and blue Where all are broth - ers and hearts are true

Un- der the Flag of Hope and Cheer Un- der the Flag we love so dear

Un- der the Flag that our dear Fathers saved In the land where Old Glo - ry waves.
