

Dedicated to the Wives and Children of Allied Soldiers

LULLABY

Great War Song

By Dr. FRENCH E. OLIVER

5

Published by French E. Oliver, 2070 Milan Ave., South Pasadena, Cal., U.S.A.

LULLABY

Baby's eyes are blinking as the sun is sinking low,
Time has come for Mother's Joy to go to dreamland, O!
Precious image of your Daddy, now with God above;
How I miss his smiles and sunshine, Treasure of his love.

Lullaby, baby lullaby; sleep and do not fear,
Lullaby, lullaby, sleep my baby dear.

When the call to service came and Daddy had to go,
Time had come for Mother's heart to break and sorrow so.
I could see him fall in battle, die to make men free,
How I miss his love and courage! O thank God for thee!

Lullaby, baby lullaby; sleep and do not fear,
Lullaby, lullaby, sleep my baby dear.

When the tidings came from battle, Daddy dear was dead,
Seemed that I had lost my life, and by your baby bed,
Mother prayed for hope and courage, grace to live and see
That in thee his smiles and sunshine all come back to me.

Lullaby, baby lullaby; sleep and do not fear,
Lullaby, lullaby, sleep my baby dear.

Lullaby

Dedicated to the Wives and Children of Allied Soldiers.

F. E. O.

FRENCH E. OLIVER

Andante con espressione

mf marcato la melodia

rit.

mf

a tempo

1. Ba-by's eyes are blinking as the
2. When the call to ser-vice came and sun is sink-ing low, Time has come for Moth-er's Joy to Dad-dy had to go, Time had come for Moth-er's heart to go to dream-land, O! Precious im-age of your Dad-dy, break and sor-row so. I could see him fall in bat-tle,

mf

now with God a - bove; How I miss his smiles and sunshine, Treasure of his love.
die to make men free. How I miss his love and courage! O thank God for thee!

Tenderly

Lul - la-by, ba-by lul-la-by; Sleep and do not fear.— Lul-la - by,

f lul - la - by,— dim. sleep my ba-by dear. rit.

D.S.

3. When the tidings came from battle, Daddy dear was dead,

mf

Seemed that I had lost my life, And by your baby bed, Mother prayed for hope and courage,

rit.

Grace to live and see That in thee his smiles and sunshine All come back to me.

pp

Lul - la - by ba-by, lul-la-by, Sleep and do not fear.

pp

a tempo

rit.

Lul - la - by, lul - la - by, Sleep my ba-by dear.

lento

pp

"OLIVER'S SONGS OF DELIVERANCE"

Gospel Hymn Book

Containing over 300 Gospel Hymns

$25 and $35 per 100

"Can America Depend on You?"

Patriotic Song—40 cents per copy

"OLIVER'S GOSPEL SOLOS"

$15 per 100, 20c per copy

PUBLISHED BY

FRENCH E. OLIVER

2070 Milan Ave., South Pasadena, Calif., U.S.A.