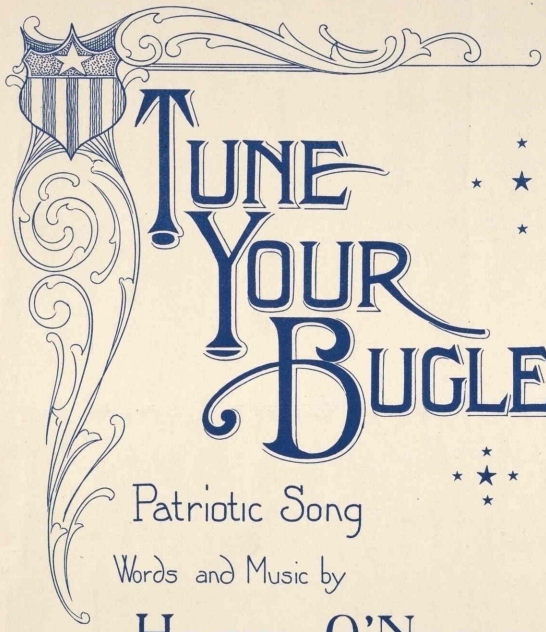
©CLE426681
JUN 15 1918



TUNE YOUR BUGLES

Patriotic Song

Words and Music by

HAZEL O'NEALL

Published by HAZEL O' NEALL,
ST JOSEPH, MO.

M1646
.O

Tune Your Bugles

or The Allies' Jollifications.

Words by HAZEL O'NEALL
Rearranged from Burns

Music by HAZEL O'NEALL

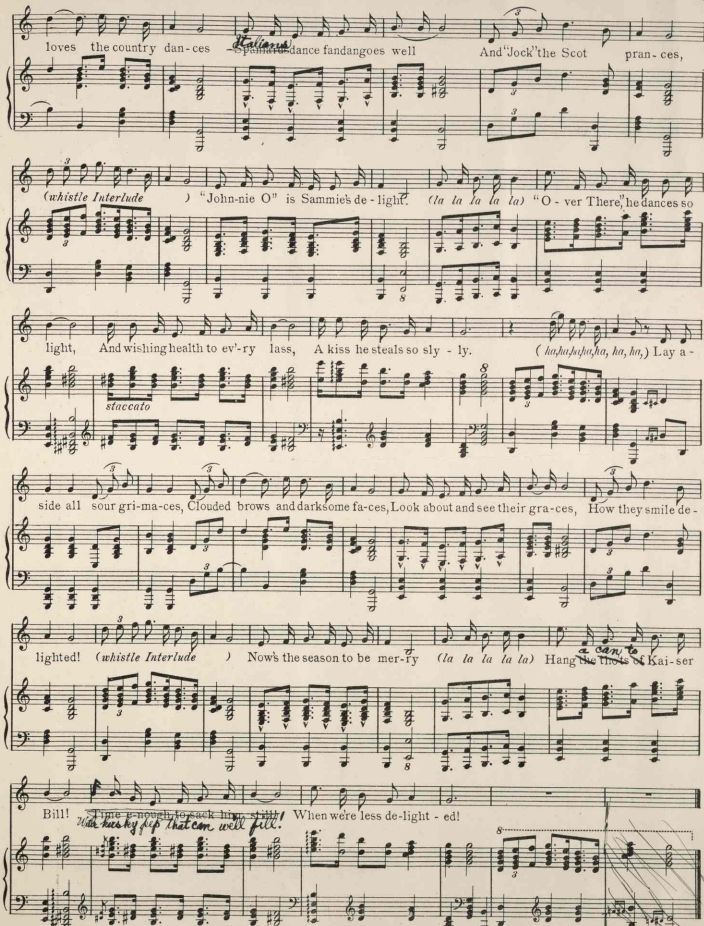
Animato

Tune your bu-gles, tune them sweetly. Play to the Red, White and Blue discreetly. Here we are a grandee com-pa-ny, Fit - ted, to be jol - ly. (whistle Interlude) Come my boys be blithe and jol - ly; (la la la la la) Ev'- ry Sammie choose his lassie, Dance with life and be not sau-cy; Shy nor melan-cho - ly! In Co - til-lion, French ex-cel John Bull

Copyright MCMXVIII by Hazel O'Neall.



loves the country dan-ces Italian dance fandangoes well And Jock the Scot pran-ces, (whistle Interlude) "John-nie O" is Sammie's de-light. (la la la la la) "O-ver There" he dances so light, And wishing health to ev'-ry lass, A kiss he steals so sly-ly. (ha,ha,ha,ha,ha,ha,) Lay a-staccato side all sour gri-ma-ces, Clouded brows and darksome fa-ces, Look about and see their gra-ces, How they smile delighted! (whistle Interlude) Now's the season to be mer-ry (la la la la la) Hang the thots of Kai-ser a can to Bill! Time enough to sack him still! When were less de-light-ed!
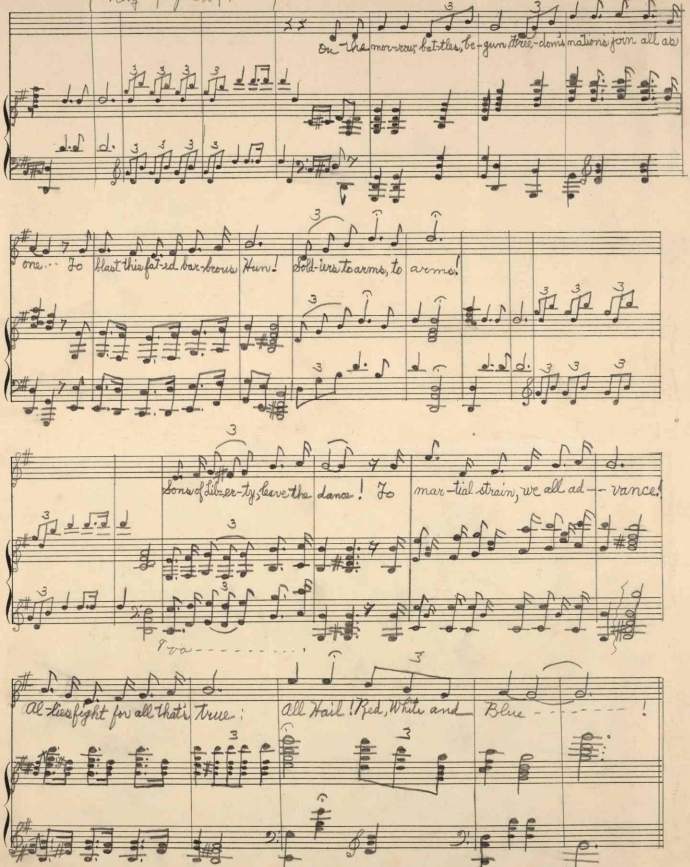
Tune Your B 2
Last verse, follows immediately, on added page.—

(4th) verse of "Tune Your Bugles."

(May Repeat.)



No. 9

Words & Music by Hazel O'Neall
St. Joseph Mo. 1021, Faraon St.

oh were my

454588