

JAN 13 1919

PROFESSIONAL COPY

When I Return To You

Words and Music by HAROLD NEANDER

Moderato

mf

Your tears were fall-ing, Still I am re-Our task is o-ver, We'll soon be in p

call-ing The smile you gave me when I marched a-way;
clo-ver If your heart tells you that you still love me;

Sun-beams were shin-ing, Still your heart was pi-ning; You were won-der-ing if While I am yearn-ing, Soon to be re-turn-ing Are you think-ing of the

I'd re-turn some day; Neath the cling-ing i-vy vine You hap-py days to be; Don't let ab-sence bring re-gret Don't

Foreign Copyright Secured

Copyright MCMXIX, by G.A. Grimm, Inc.
Grand Opera House, Chicago, Ill.

International Copyright Secured

41146
H

told me you were mine, — Do you love me in the same old way?
let your heart for - get. — That you prom-ised you would wait for me.

CHORUS

When I re - turn — will you be wait - ing? — When I re - turn — will you be there? — Down at the cross - roads — where we part - ed, — And the soft summer breeze fanned your hair; — Will your heart beat — a lit - tle fast - er? — Will you smile — just a lit - tle bit — too? — Tell me, dear - ie, — will you be wait - ing? —

When I re - turn to you. — When I come you. —