Un-cle Sam-my runs a great big na-tion; The A-mer-i-can way. —
 The na-tion's mighty call to arms was sounded; How it thrill'd thru the air. — The boys from near and far they all re-spond-ed; — They came with a rush ev-'ry-where. —

Christopher Col-um-bus found its shores one day, As he came from far a-cross the sea. — Underneath the stars and stripes they sail'd a-way; They spread Old Glo-ry o-ver land and sea. — To the tune of Yankee Doodle, they captured Huns and boodle, To make the world a land of lib-er-ty.

CHORUS p-f

We love our land, that dear old land of lib - er - ty, And we'll fight for her a-cross the deep blue sea. As the hour of bat-tle comes, with Un-cle Sammys guns, We'll drive those savage Huns to e-ter-ni - ty. And while the friends at home back up the boys a-cross the foam, They fight for them and all hu-man-i - ty. When the might-y war is o'er, they'll re-turn to vic-tris shore; To that land, the land of lib - er - ty. We love our ty.

EXTRA "LIBERTY LOAN" CHORUS

—FOR—

"THE LAND OF LIBERTY"

Now buy a bond, a U. S. Bond of Liberty,
For the lads who fight for you across the sea.
They've got them on the run, but still they need your mon',
To chase those savage Huns through Germany.
Come all you friends at home, back up the boys across the foam;
Those boys who fight for all humanity.
Every bond helps win this war, so buy two, or three, or four.
Buy a bond, a Bond of Liberty.
