

MAY 20 1918

I Delight to Think of Sweetheart

Words and Music by ROB ROY PARRISH

Arranged by
F. E. CHAPIN

I de - light to think of sweet-heart, I am proud of her, I am: She is
I am proud to be a sol - dier, though al - be - it that my name, Will not
She has cheeks with tints like ro - ses, she puts ro - ses in her hair: She is Hat in hand I bow to he - roes hav - ing val - ors hon - or'd I with proud al so that I will go and fight for Un - cle Sam: I will show with daz - zling glow in free - dom's a - zure dome of fame: Yet my love's de - light - ful an - gel and the fair - est of the fair: Hap - py pride sa - lite the high - er - ups that win their gleam - ing star But my fight for flag and free - dom, she is work - ing for Red Cross; Kiss - ing heart will beat with pleas - ure if through life I day - ly prove, Wor - thy hopes will cheer my spir - it where so ev - er I may rove, She shall soul will thrill more joy - ous at the thought of time to come When Copyright 1918 by Rob Roy Parrish Publisher, Chula Vista, Cal.

All Rights Reserved.

H1646

7

flag she gave she smil - ing said, "Re - mem - ber Ec - sey Ross."
 lov - ing love - ly sweet - heart pre - cious god - dess of true love.
 be glad for - some girl - ish to me my gra - cious god - dess of true love.
 glad - some girl - ish to me my gra - cious god - dess of true love.

CHORUS

I de - light to think of sweet-heart, the girl I like to see; True - ly throbs my heart for sweetheart, the girl that's true to me; It is joy to read a let - ter from my dear de - vot - ed dove; O! I like to be with sweetheart liv - ing hap - py life of love.