

OCT -7 1918

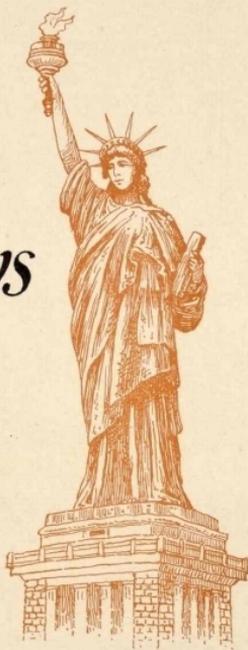

©CLE432866

(BUY A BOND)
"You Owe it
To the Brave Boys
Over There"

WORDS BY LOU THAYER

MUSIC BY VICTOR M. PAULSON

PRICE 30 CENTS

PUBLISHED BY NATIONAL SONGCRAFT CO.
1400 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

M1646
.p

(BUY A BOND)

You Owe It To The Brave Boys Over There

Words by LOU THAYERMusic by VICTOR M. PAULSON

Tempo di marcia

I dreamt I saw the
I saw the flags a bat-tle-field and watch'd the troops ad- vance. I thought I heard the an- gry guns, the guns in far off flut-ter there, out- lined a- gainst the sky. And some were torn by shot and shell, yet all went proudly

France. And to their aw- ful fu- ry the sleep- ing world a- woke And this is what I by. And as the breez- es caught them, as though in glee- ful play, The flags found voice and fan- cied they said each time they spoke:

dream- ing, I seemed to hear them say:

Copyright 1918 by National Songcraft Co.
1100 Broadway N. Y. C.

CHORUS

Buy a bond, buy a bond for Li-ber-ty, — That the whole world may be free. — Buy a bond, buy a bond for Un-cle Sam, — For your bonds mean vic-to - ry. — Buy a bond, buy a bond just to show where you stand;

Buy a bond just to do your share. You owe it to Li-ber-ty, to

Un-cle Sam And to the brave boys "O-ver There!"

